Perkins Course of Study
121 Bible I
Fall 2022
Syllabus

Instructor: Dr. Charles L. Aaron
Office: Kirby 300
ciaaron@smu.edu
cla56@aol.com
cell: 214-405-3903

Required Textbooks

Texts for reference:

Pre-class Assignments

Four 4-page papers (double-spaced)

1. Read Cory, pp. 1-117, and Boadt, 1-67. In this paper, describe how this material has changed the way you read the Bible. What new insights does this material give you? What did you learn about the history behind the Bible?

2. Concentrate on Cory, p. 48 and 51, and Hayes and Holladay, pp. 127-135. Read the narratives in the synoptic gospels of the Transfiguration (Mark 9:2-13; Matthew 17:1-13; Luke 9:28-36). How does this background in redaction criticism help you understand the differences in these narratives? What new questions do you have about them?
3. Concentrate on Boadt, pp. 61-64 and Hayes and Holladay, pp. 115-124, Read Genesis 1-3. How does this background in tradition/source criticism help you understand the differences in these narratives? What new questions do you have about them?

4. Write a review of Anderson, The Unfolding Drama of the Bible. What did you learn from this book? How does it help you understand the whole story of the Bible?