The Canvas "Feedback Box" is a useful way to ask questions or provide feedback. The "Feedback Box" is a new tool located on the bottom lefthand side that allows you to write confidential, anonymous messages to faculty members.

Instructors can view your feedback on a dashboard, reply while maintaining anonymity, and customize alert preferences. The system will send an e-mail when feedback is posted.

More Canvas Tips

The SMU in Four team works with Student Senate to make Canvas consistent and easy to use. Look for these super-helpful features in your classes:

- Add contacts—prefer using your Gmail? You can add different ways to get reminders and messages
 - Push Notifications—customize reminders so they come in when you need them
 - Announcements—these are a great way for professors to communicate updates and changes. Set up your notifications and you won't miss one!
