

AccessAbility

DASS Newsletter
Disability Accommodations and Success Strategies

July 2023
Vol 15 Issue 13

Professor Patricia Rawlins, Adjunct Professor of Latin and Latin Area Chair of the World Languages Department of Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences is committed to supporting students who learn differently, always willing to go the extra mile to help them to succeed.

Professor Andrea Arterbery, Visiting Professor of Practice in the Department of Journalism in the Meadows School of the Arts, is an engaging instructor who is accommodating and understanding towards students with learning differences.

Dr. Helen Reynolds, Senior Lecturer and Maguire Teaching Fellow in the Department of Economics of Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences has won an Extra Mile Award this year for her engaging teaching style, dedication to teaching and learning, and her caring demeanor.

Fall 2023 Semester Requests

Want to share your DASS letters with your professors? Please do not submit a "Semester Request" in DASS Link until after 8/7/23. If your schedule is NOT set by then, or one of your courses doesn't have an instructor listed yet, please wait until it is set, and all instructors are listed in my.SMU. If you change your schedule AFTER your letters have gone out, please submit ANOTHER Semester Request for that new class.

The footer includes the DASS Link Student Log-In.

Farewell Wishes to Dr. Robin Corbett

If you work with Dr. Robin Corbett as your DASS Coordinator, she will be leaving SMU to be closer to her home and family to pursue new endeavors effective 7/7/2023. Please join us in wishing Robin well and thank her for her work with SMU.

Valiza Cameron- Patterson, our new Coordinator has arrived and will be working with students who were mostly formerly assigned to Robin Corbett. If you need assistance or have any questions, please contact our office. We will introduce her in our next newsletter!

Best Buddies

Fill out this interest form for next year!

The DASS Team ~ 214-768-1470

dass@smu.edu

DASS Link Student Log-In: <https://shibboleth-smu-accommodate.symplicity.com/sso/>