Reminders

Virtual Course Database

As you prepare for Spring 2021 enrollment, consider using the Virtual Course Database. While fully remote students may enroll in both SMUFlex and Virtual courses, Virtual courses are provided in an online-only format. These Virtual courses may help alleviate concerns that remote students have about technology, participation, or hearing the professor in a SMUFlex course.

Course Withdrawal Deadline Extended

The date for undergraduate students to withdraw from a course or term for the Fall 2020 semester is Wednesday, December 2 (5 p.m. CST). Please note that withdrawing from a course or term may affect federal aid, veterans' benefits, athletic scholarships, and immigration status. You are encouraged to visit with your academic advisor before making any decisions.

Spring 2021

During Spring 2021, SMU will offer courses in three formats: Virtual, SMUFlex, and Fully In-person. The Spring 2021 course schedule now available to view on my.smu.edu. If you will be changing from SMUFlex to Remote attendance or changing from Remote to SMUFlex attendance for spring, please complete our survey before Friday, November 13 for enrollment. All requests sent after this deadline will not be processed until Monday, November 30. You may still notify SMU of your desire to change your status at any time before the start of the spring semester using this survey.

Spring Enrollment: Clear Holds

Clear your holds and prepare for a shortened Spring enrollment period. You can clear your holds by visiting my.smu.edu. Click on the tasks tile with the alert icon the follow the directions to clear your specific holds. Now you will be able to enroll!

Are you looking for a study break? On November 16, Student Foundation at SMU will host Celebration of Lights. SMU students are invited to gather for this joyous occasion to watch the famous Dallas Hall be lit with thousands of lights in all its wonder. Come enjoy the holiday spirit!
