Facility Fees Structure

The following are fees for rental of the facility only. Fees for custodial help, security, and/or building staff are additional. Rental of the facilities cannot interfere with normal operating hours and/or student usage.

Group Breakdown:

1. All functions of faculty, recognized student organizations, and staff of SMU when organized as a program designated to benefit the University (When no fees are charged). All SMU Students, Faculty/Staff would have Free Access. Outside participants would pay a designated Guest Fee.
2. All functions of faculty, recognized student organizations, and staff of SMU when organized as a program designed to benefit the University wanting all participants to have Free Access whether fees are charged or not.
OR
All functions of faculty, recognized student organizations, and staff of SMU when organized program is a philanthropy event.
3. Reservations can only be made by groups outside the University Community for NON-PROFIT EVENTS. All functions sponsored by groups outside the University Community. All participants would have free access. (Contract and Proof of Insurance Required before reservation can be made)
4. Anyone/group making repeated reservations in the same calendar year, regardless of category, will receive the following reductions in fees:
6-12 reservations – 20% reduction
13 reservations and up – 30% reduction
In order to qualify for these reductions, a refundable deposit (amount to be determined according to the type of reservation) must be made when the reservations are made. After the qualifying number for the given reduction is reached, the deposit will be deducted from future reservations charges. If early cancellation of reservations occurs, the deposit will be forfeited.
