Title IX Conduct Review Process

Incident Occurs

- Report is made to University Official

- Student may remain anonymous

- Report is forwarded to the Office of Institutional Access and Equity.
  - If reporting student wishes to remain anonymous, steps will be taken to ensure student confidentiality

Investigation Concluded

- By Title IX Coordinator or Deputy
  - Investigators determine a preponderance of the evidence to move forward with charges
  - Investigators do not determine a preponderance of the evidence to move forward with charges

Hearing

- Reporting student requests a hearing

Conduct Officer Hearing

- Conduct Officer or University Conduct Board makes determination if student should be found responsible or not. If student is found responsible, sanctions are also assigned.

University Conduct Board Hearing

- University Conduct Council sends final recommendation to Vice President of Student Affairs for review

Complainant and Respondent student may appeal to the University Conduct Council (UCC)