SMU-in-Taos, Fort Burgwin is a multi-purpose educational facility owned by Southern Methodist University in Dallas, TX. The 423-acre campus is located approximately eight miles south of Taos on NM Highway 518.

DIRECTIONS TO OUR CAMPUS

From Taos, travel south on NM 518. Past Mile Marker 66, look for the SMU-in-Taos Fort Burgwin highway sign. Turn right onto campus through the second gate. Cross the bridge and turn right at the second intersection into the parking area. The Dining Hall will be on the right, and the Auditorium is located just north of the parking area.

IMA LEETE HUTCHISON CONCERT SERIES

The music of the Julius Quartet from the SMU Meadows School of the Arts
Saturday, July 21 at 8:15 PM, O’Donnell Auditorium

The Ima Leete Hutchison Concert Series is held each year on the SMU-in-Taos campus and is made possible by an endowment established in 1989 by William and Patsy Hutchison in honor of his mother, Ima Leete Hutchison.
