Course Objectives and Overview:
Every entrepreneur is faced with the same problem: “Where and how do I get money to build or grow my business?” This experience-based course explores strategies for attracting capital for arts-related ventures, whether for-profit or nonprofit. Numerous award-winning exercises are used in this class to make it interactive, experiential and fun. We look at legal structures, crowdfunding, angel investors and venture capital, website creation as a visual aide or prototype, pitch deck creation, pitching in a myriad of ways—including video. Students leave with both an understanding of theory and practice and will have skills to implement their knowledge in the market. The skills in this class also serve students to effectively compete for jobs by enhancing interviewing skills.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
- Students will gain insight into the ancient relationship between bartering, exchange of service and goods as entrepreneurs.
- Students will come to understand the relativity of value.
- Branding in relation to exchange of value is a topic students engage in.
- Students will participate in sales techniques and budgeting.
- Students come to identify and understand legal structures.
- Students learn to develop an original pitch.
- Students will be able to select and use appropriate forms of evidence in a public presentation. Students will be able to design verbal messages to suit audiences and purposes. Students will be able to use visual cues (such as presentation software, a website, staging, props, costumes, makeup, and gesture) to enhance a public presentation.

REQUIRED READING/WATCHING:
Successful Fundraising for Arts and Cultural Organizations (Hopkins, Freidman), The Oryx Press, 1997. Also, students are required to read web articles, view videos, listen to audio and observe other digital content and original text sent through Facebook by at least the evening before the next day’s course.

Grading Breakdown:
- Average of Quizzes: 20%
- Pitch Decks: 10%
- 2-Minute Pitch: 20%
- Contest Video Elevator Pitch: 10%
- Participation: 10%
- Final Exam (Cumulative): 30%

100%

GRADING POLICY
A 93 and above  B+ 87-89  C+ 77-79  D+ 67-69  F Below 60
Quizzes: (20%) Quizzes are based upon readings, information presented in class by the professor, guest lecturers, videos, text, media presented or otherwise offered/assigned by the professor in this course. Primarily, quiz material will draw from the required course book Successful Fundraising for Arts and Cultural Organizations. Other assignments that count as a quiz include Grant Writing, and possibly others (as will be discussed in class). NOTE: Students will develop a website as a demonstration and/or visual aide for possible use in their pitch. Students are urged to check out http://www.weebly.com/, www.wix.com, and www.wordpress.com to create original websites. Students will also create a pitch deck. Each or both may be used as a visual aide during the pitch contest.

Pitch Decks: (10%)

2-minute Pitch: (30%) Students will develop a 2- minute pitch, accompanied by their pitch deck. See syllabus timeline for information on how to build a pitch deck.

Video Elevator Pitch: (10%) Students will compete with each other in an elevator pitch contest before a panel of external judges. These judges will judge the videos outside of the classroom and post class in Dallas. Students’ pitches must not exceed 2 minutes.

Note: If you are called upon to pitch (regardless of order), and you are not prepared to do so (and consequently do not pitch), your attendance grade will drop a full tier. Example: If your participation grade is, at that time, an A and you do not pitch when called upon, your participation grade will drop to A-. If you choose to not participate in class exercises, and clear evidence of effort is not present, the same holds true.

Final Exam: (30%) The final exam will be cumulative. I will not be present on the day of the final exam. This exam will be proctored. All students are required to arrive on time to class. The structure of this process will be explained in class. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Note: I do not tell students what will be on Quizzes or Final Exam. Please do not ask.

Your goals for this class are to be present, absorb the material as best you can and grow. If you have questions, I am happy to address them at any time. This said, at my own discretion, I may review with you or tell you what to focus on for an upcoming quiz.

SMU HONOR CODE
The University’s Honor Code governs all work undertaken and submitted in this course. The instructor in this course believes that intellectual integrity and academic honesty are vital to the learning process at SMU. As a student you have the responsibility of knowing the regulations of the SMU Honor Code (found in the SMU Policies For Community Life), and the penalties for departing from it. This includes all areas of dishonesty including plagiarism, cheating on tests, use of the work of others (published or unpublished), and the observance and knowledge that others are cheating.

Your name should be included on an assignment only if you contributed substantially to the completion of the assignment. Putting your name on an assignment that was completed entirely by your group members without your input constitutes representing others' work as your own and is a violation of the honor code.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS
Students needing academic accommodations for a disability must first register with Disability Accommodations & Success Strategies (DASS). Students can call 214-768-1470 or visit http://www.smu.edu/Provost/ALEC/DASS to begin the process. Once registered, students should then schedule an appointment with the professor as early in the semester as possible, present a DASS Accommodation Letter, and make appropriate arrangements. Please note that accommodations are not retroactive and require advance notice to implement.

FILMING, BLOGGING & CONTENT CREATION & USE
At times, projects and/or lectures and general course work may be filmed, photographed and/or recorded. Such materials may be used for personal research purposes, marketing, general media use or any other means James Hart, professor of this course, deems appropriate. By enrolling in this course, you have accepted this.

The Arts Entrepreneurship Blog is http://blog.smu.edu/artsentrepreneurship/

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE
Religiously observant students wishing to be absent on holidays that require missing class should notify their professors in writing at the beginning of the semester, and should discuss with them, in advance, acceptable ways of making up any work missed because of the absence. (See University Policy No. 1.9.)

MAKEUP POLICY: If you are required to attend a SMU-related function (such as a sports event, department event, etc.), please provide appropriate official documentation prior to the event. With documentation, you will not be penalized for missing class. If you are sick and unable to attend class, you must obtain a signed doctor’s note for the absence to be excused and this note must reflect each day the doctor excuses you from class. The professor may choose whether exceptions to this policy are to be made.

EXCUSED ABSENCES:
Students participating in an officially sanctioned, scheduled University extracurricular activity should be given the opportunity to make up class assignments or other graded assignments missed as a result of their participation. It is the responsibility of the student to make arrangements with the instructor prior to any missed scheduled examination or other missed assignment for making up the work. (University Undergraduate Catalogue)

CAMPUS CARRY LAW:
In accordance with Texas Senate Bill 11, also known as the “campus carry” law, following consultation with entire University community SMU determined to remain a weapons-free campus. Specifically, SMU prohibits possession of weapons (either openly or in a concealed manner) on campus. For more information, please see: http://www.smu.edu/BusinessFinance/Police/Weapons_Policy.

FINAL EXAM:

Note: Because of the short May-Term semester, changes to this curriculum may and likely will occur at any time. I try to work with the students and what they bring to the class. As needs become apparent or change, I will adapt the syllabi. All students will be notified of changes.

Effective pitches must be practiced with great frequency and it is expected that each student in this class is practicing their pitch over the full course of the class, ready to work at any time. Please note that this class rapidly occurs in May-Term. Please work on your pitches every day outside of class, as well as time we take in class.
