

Donatas Rackauskas

PARTNER

Summary

Donatas is an Audit Partner in KPMG Dallas Audit and Assurance practice. He has over 19 years of experience providing financial statement and internal control over financial reporting audit services to clients in the consumer, industrial, and retail industries.

In addition, as a Partner-in-Charge of Dallas Audit Recruiting, he is responsible for attracting and retaining the best students with the skills and passion that our profession demands. This includes creating and executing effective campus strategy as well as building and nurturing student, faculty and staff relationships.

Positions

– Partner-in-charge of Dallas Audit Recruiting at KPMG LLP

As a Partner-in-Charge of Dallas Audit Recruiting, Donatas works with the Dallas Audit Primary Recruiter to create and execute an effective campus strategy for each recruiting season. He also collaborates with Target School Partners and University Recruiters to execute an effective recruiting strategy and achieve our hiring budgets without compromising quality of the candidates

– Audit Partner at KPMG LLP

Donatas has provided professional audit services and served on the engagement teams for several large clients in accordance with PCAOB, U.S. GAAS and ISA auditing standards. His audit experience includes Security Exchange Commission (SEC) filings, significant merger and acquisition engagements, and private company audits. Donatas also has a thorough understanding of SEC rules and regulations and have been involved in numerous debt and equity offerings. He has served on audit engagements in a variety of industries assisting his clients with various complex financial reporting/accounting matters under both US GAAP and IFRS.

KPMG LLP
2323 Ross Avenue
Suite 1400
Dallas, TX 75201

Email: drackauskas@kpmg.com
Tel: (214) 840-4771

Education:

- BBA 05, Southern Methodist University
- MSA 07, Southern Methodist University