Sarah T. Hughes Scholarship Application

The Sarah T. Hughes Scholarship is granted by the Dallas Bar Foundation to enable talented law students to obtain a legal education in our community with the purpose of expanding access and opportunity for individuals whose experiences and perspectives are not widely represented in the legal community of North Texas. The Scholarship supports students whose journeys to law school reflect determination, resilience, and a strong sense of purpose by overcoming barriers or difficult paths in pursuing higher education. The Dallas Bar Foundation encourages applicants who are first in their families to attend college; have entered law school after pursuing other careers or who balance work, family, or military service while pursuing their legal education. Financial need is considered.

Incoming 1L students attending SMU Dedman School of Law are eligible to apply. The selection of the recipient is made by the Dallas Bar Foundation. The scholarship is renewed if the student remains in good academic standing.

Judge Sarah T. Hughes devoted herself to improving the rights of others for more than half a century. She served in the Texas Legislature from 1930 to 1934 and was the first woman to become a State District Judge in Texas. Judge Hughes was appointed as a United States District Judge in 1962 by President John F. Kennedy and served until her retirement at the age of 85. Judge Hughes gained national recognition when she swore in Lyndon Baines Johnson as President of the United States. Judge Hughes often remarked on a simple yet powerful life philosophy: "Pick out your goal and then use determination and courage to reach it." This spirit continues to guide the scholarship and its recipients today.
