SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The papers of Judge Barefoot Sanders consist of court orders, pleadings, exhibits, pre-trial orders, opinions and findings, appeals, judge's docket, and petitions; reports; plans; news clippings and articles; proposals; budgets; Tri-Ethnic, African-American, Latino, and Black Coalition committee papers; transcripts of hearings and proceedings; meeting notes; official and public correspondence; research and reference documentation, and handwritten notes. Of particular interest are reports by the outside auditors to Judge Sanders.

Topics of the records include facilities and maintenance plans and upgrades, budget, issues, and bond programs; Unitary Status; School issues, funding, curriculum, reading programs, and English-as-second language proficiency; desegregation plans, problems, and monitoring; Charter, TAG, and Magnet school locations, construction, and attendance zones; attorney's fees; and interrogatories and responses

Types of materials in the collection include paper, videotapes, audiotapes, photographs, court reporter tapes, 3.5" diskettes, and CDs.

The records span the period 1922-2003, n.d., and includes some early records created during Judge Taylor's oversight of the litigation.
