(Doors open at 5:40 p.m. Pre-registration required)

Prothro Great Hall

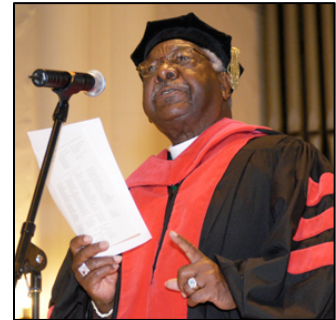

The Rev. Dr. James V. Lyles and the Rev. Ted J. Dotts, Jr. have been named 2015 Distinguished Alumni Award recipients by the Alumni/ae Council of Perkins School of Theology. This annual award recognizes Perkins graduates who have demonstrated effectiveness and integrity in service to the church, continuing support and involvement in the goals of Perkins School of Theology and SMU, distinguished service in the wider community, and exemplary character.

Dr. Lyles earned the Master of Theology degree from Perkins School of Theology in 1955. With four fellow students – John Wesley Elliott, Arthur Hawkins, Negail Rudolph Riley, and Cecil Williams – Lyles helped Perkins School of Theology lead the way in the desegregation of the University as the five became the first African Americans to be admitted as degree candidates and to graduate from SMU.

Covenant Health System.

Rev. Dotts earned the Master of Theology degree from Perkins School of Theology in 1964. He has served in positions as varied as church pastor and district superintendent, medical ethicist and hospital administrator, and an elected delegate to four consecutive UMC General Conferences. He presented lectures in medical ethics at the School of Medicine and the School of Law, Texas Tech University, and was named senior vice president of Ethics and Faith for

The Albert Cook Outler Papers

The personal and professional papers of Albert Cook Outler (1908-1989) comprise the largest, and one of the most significant, archival collections at Bridwell Library.

This exhibition presents examples of the diverse materials that document the life and teachings of a dedicated churchman, brilliant scholar, prolific writer, engaging speaker, master ecumenicist, and one of the United Methodist Church's foremost historical theologians of the twentieth century.
