

AccessAbility

DASS Newsletter
Disability Accommodations and Success Strategies

October 2025
Vol 18 Issue 5

Next SNL Meeting Agenda

Schedule Building and Course Selection Workshop

Do you want to...

- Build the best schedule for the next semester?
- Balance your courses by time and day?
- Find professors that match your learning style?

Then this meeting is for you!!!

PLUS Food and Drinks

Tuesday, October 28
5:00 - 6:00 PM
Loyd All-Sports Center
ALEC Room 202R

Reminder

Spring Enrollment

Enrollment for the spring semester starts on 11/3. Check my. SMU for your specific enrollment time to add classes. Ensure you meet with your advisor and plan your schedule beforehand, considering your disability impacts and approved accommodations when selecting courses.

Are you a DASS student who
...needs to get started on that assignment?
...lost your motivation?
...keeps getting distracted?

The DASS Peer Mentor can help you as your accountability partner or ADHD body double

Get connected today!
Email Lindsay: ltempleton@smu.edu

Free service!
Provided by SMU students!
Flexible hours!

FOOD ALLERGIES?

For students with food allergies or related issues, consulting campus dietitian Erika Kertz, who recently earned a certification in Celiac Disease and gluten-related disorders, is encouraged. Kertz aims to enhance guidance on gluten-free nutrition and raise awareness. She can assist with healthy choices and avoiding cross-contact. Students can report issues via a QR code in the dining hall and find meal plans and nutrition info on the Dining Services website. Additionally, Arnold's True Balance station offers food free from the top 9 allergens.

Student Senate Representative

Owen Bartosh is a sophomore Marketing and Public Policy major from Waxahachie, Texas. He currently serves as a Student Senator representing the Cox School of Business and as the new Senate Director of Disability Advocacy. Around campus, Owen is involved with Student Foundation, Alpha Kappa Psi business fraternity, and works as a Student Ambassador. In his free time, he reads classic novels and plays French horn in the Meadows Symphony Orchestra. As the son of two special education teachers, Owen has a passion for disability advocacy in the classroom and beyond. You can reach him any time via email at obartosh@smu.edu.

The DASS Team ~ 214-768-1470

dass@smu.edu

DASS Link Student Log-In: <https://shibboleth-smu-accommodate.symplicity.com/sso/>