ACADEMIC COACHING

Need help with time management, organization and studying?

- DASS offers free, one-on-one academic coaching for undergraduate students with LD/ADHD. If you are interested in scheduling an appointment, log into DASS Link to make an appointment with David Tylicki, our DASS academic coach.

REMEMBER!

To schedule at the University Testing Center, you must have a current semester accommodation letter sent to your instructor!

Successful Communication between You and your Professor

- Need help communicating with your instructors about your accommodations? After you electronically share your accommodation letter on DASS Link, the final step is to meet with your professors to put your accommodations in place.
- Tips for communicating with your professors can be found in your DASS Link portal under the Resources tab >>Resource Library.

Spring 2026 Semester Requests

If you haven't already submitted your semester request NOW is the time before tests begin. Here is the DASS Link login that will take you to your home page:

https://shibboleth-smu-

accommodate.symplicity.com/sso/

Review your request by scrolling through every approved accommodation listed and only check the classes you are going to be enrolled in for the spring.

2 reasons: 1) You only want a letter sent to your professors. 2) It will expediate the approval of your letter being sent to you and your professors.

*** It is your responsibility to reach out to the instructor and discuss your accommodation needs after sharing the letter in DASS Link.

Looking to Connect?

Students for New Learning, or SNL for short, is an SMU-chartered student organization just for neurodivergent students, including students with ADHD, learning differences, and ASD. This informal group meets monthly to provide support to each other, learn tips and strategies, plan fun events, and work as an educating agent on campus on the topic of learning differences. Join SNL for the first meeting of the semester
