Barbara Gallatin Anderson

Barbara Gallatin Anderson began her graduate work at the University of California at Berkeley and received her doctorate from The Sorbonne, The University of Paris in 1959. Prior to coming to SMU, she taught at the University of California School of Medicine and California State University. She joined the SMU faculty in 1974 as full Professor of Anthropology and as the first woman faculty member in the history of the Anthropology Department. Within one year she launched both Master's and Ph.D. programs "with Specialization in Medical Anthropology." In 1982 Dr. Anderson was Consultant and Coordinator for the United Nations first World Assembly on Aging. In 1983 she was honored with the Chair of University Distinguished Professor of Anthropology. In 1985 and 1986 she served as Director of the SMU-in-Paris program. She has received numerous awards including the State of California Distinguished Teaching Award, SMU's Author's Award, and the federal government's Clara Barton Humanitarian Research Award. Author of seven books and many articles, her most recent manuscript is First Fieldwork: The Misadventures of an Anthropologist. Her work has taken her to Mexico, India, France, Morocco, Japan, Russia and China. She will retire as Professor Emeritus of Anthropology.

Doris M. Davis

After three years at Northwestern University and the University of Michigan, Doris Davis received her B.A. from Southern Methodist University. She holds the M.A. and the D.M.L. (Doctor of Modern Languages) from the Summer Graduate Schools of Middlebury College. Professor at SMU since 1950, she holds an outstanding teacher award as well as the prestigious M Award. Among her community services, she has been a senator, member of the Judicial Board and Chair for the French Area. She has participated in SCMLA conferences where she has chaired sections and presented papers. However, the main thrust of her university career has been teaching innovations in literature (Surrealism and the Arts) as well as language (Intensive Carpeaux Method). Her work-in-progress is a monograph on the modern French poet, Jean Orizet. The highlight of her career is the founding of the SMU-in-Paris program in 1972. She was Director in 1977, 1982-83 and has traveled extensively for the program the past seventeen years. She will retire as Assistant Professor Emeritus of French.

John Deschner

John Deschner received the B.A. from the University of Texas, the B.D. from Yale University Divinity School, and the D.Theol. from the University of Basel, where his dissertation (published as Wesley's Christology: An Interpretation) was directed by Karl Barth. He did a year of post-doctoral study at the University of Heidelberg. Before joining the faculty of the Perkins School of Theology in 1956, he served as an executive officer for the United Student Christian Council, the World Student Christian Federation, and World University Service (International). He has been steadily involved in the ecumenical movement, as an advisor, delegate, and speaker at several assemblies of the World Council of Churches, as moderator of its Commission on Faith and Order from 1983 to 1991, as chairperson of the Theological Commission of the Consultation on Church Union, and as a participant in various other forms of ecumenical discussion and negotiation. At Southern Methodist University, he has served in numerous ways as an interpreter of the university's mission and as an architect of its vision of liberal learning. In 1983 he was named Lehman Professor of Christian Doctrine at Perkins School of Theology. He will retire as Professor Emeritus of Christian Doctrine.
William Eckart

Professor at SMU since 1971, William Eckart received his B.S. in Architecture from Tulane University in 1942 and an M.F.A. in Stage Design from Yale University in 1949. Professor Eckart has been Head of Design Curriculum in the Theatre Division since 1971. He came to SMU after a successful career on Broadway in partnership with his wife, Jean. As William and Jean Eckart, they designed scenery, costumes, and lighting for T.V., films, and numerous Broadway shows and were co-producers of Once Upon A Mattress. Other credits include The Golden Apple; Damn Yankees; Fiorello; Take Her, She's Mine; and Mame. Professor Eckart's professional activities and distinctions include being listed in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in Theatre, and Who's Who in American Theatre. He has also received The Donaldson Award for best scenery for The Golden Apple, 1953-54 and received Tony nominations for Fiorello in 1959 and Mame in 1966. Mr. Eckart published "Designing for the Theatre," in Theatre Arts, July 1960 and has had work included in The Best Plays, Stage Design Throughout the World, and Contemporary Stage Design-U.S.A. He will retire as Professor Emeritus of Theatre.

William R. Farmer

William R. Farmer received the A.B. degree from Occidental College, the B.A. and M.A. from Cambridge University, and the B.D. and Th. D. from Union Theological Seminary in New York. He joined the faculty of the Perkins School of Theology in 1959, having previously taught at Emory University, DePauw University, and Drew University. The focus of his scholarly interests throughout his career has been the question of the relationship of the first three Gospels in the New Testament. His advocacy of the chronological priority of the Gospels of Matthew and of a new approach to New Testament interpretation based on this priority has been carried out through numerous publications, lectures, and conferences, and has won him an international reputation. He has been instrumental in the founding and growth of several major seminars in New Testament studies and related areas. Active in Dallas community affairs, he has given leadership in many ways to the causes of human rights and racial justice, particularly on the local level. He will retire as Professor Emeritus of New Testament.

E. Ted Gardner

Mr. Gardner graduated from Boston University in 1951 with a B.A. degree in music and in 1964 received an M.M. degree from SMU. Previous to his graduate work at SMU, Mr. Gardner was music director for the 3rd Army, taught in the public schools of Needham, Massachusetts, and was involved as a free-lance drummer with bands and orchestras in the New York City area. Since coming to Dallas, Mr. Gardner has been actively involved in audio production, working as the recording director of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra and other free-lance activities. At SMU, Mr. Gardner was an instructor in music and history in the Dance Department from 1964 to 1965. In 1968, he joined the Broadcast-Film Arts Division as an instructor of basic and advanced audio techniques. He was also a long-time faculty advisor for KSMU. Many of Mr. Gardner’s former students are actively involved in the recording/audio industry, both in Dallas and in other centers such as Los Angeles. He will retire as Assistant Professor Emeritus of Communications.

Thomas Hayward

Professor Hayward, tenor, has had a distinguished career both as performing artist and teacher. Following his debut with the New York City Opera Company in 1945, he won the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air" and began a fourteen-year association with the Metropolitan Opera Company. His success with the Met brought concert and opera invitations from across the United States and Canada. He performed with every major symphony orchestra in the United States and Canada. For many years he was the star of his own radio show — "Serenade to America" — broadcast from New York City on the NBC
Network. Thomas Hayward has recorded for RCA Victor, Cambridge, Everest, and Decca recording companies. After a distinguished concert career Thomas Hayward joined the SMU faculty and built a reputation as one of the nation's most outstanding teachers of voice. He is most noted for his development of outstanding students who have won major awards, including the Metropolitan Opera Auditions, and have established international careers. Completing 27 years of service at SMU, he will retire as Professor Emeritus of Voice and Opera.

MARGARET LOFT

Professor at SMU since 1975, Margaret Loft received a B.S. in Speech from Northwestern University in 1947, an M.F.A. in Directing from Carnegie University in 1967 and an M.S.S.W. from the University of Texas at Arlington in 1987. She has been a member of Actor's Equity and the American Federation of TV and Radio Artists. Professor Loft appeared on Broadway in 1952 in The Brass Ring. She is one of the charter theatre faculty members at the Juilliard School which was headed by John Houseman. Professor Loft has been a specialist in speech for actors using the Linklater Method. She has served as vocal/text coach for The Shakespeare Festival of Dallas, the American Shakespeare Festival and Hope Summer Repertory Theatre, Holland, Michigan. Professor Loft also directed The Beaux Stratagems for the Vita Shakespeare Festival, Saratoga, California in 1990 and conducted a workshop in voice and speech at the University of South Florida, Tampa. Professor Loft was cited at the Annual Meeting of the Board of the National Endowment for the Arts for excellence of text and vocal clarity at the Dallas Shakespeare Festival, in Washington, D.C. in 1988; received The Outstanding Faculty/Staff Volunteer Award from SMU in 1990 for recognition of exceptional volunteer service and dedication to the larger community; and was the 1990 Convocation Speaker at SMU. Margaret Loft will retire as Professor Emeritus of Theatre.

CHARLES J. MORRIS

Professor Charles J. Morris received his B.A. from Temple University and his J.D. from Columbia University. After graduation from law school he practiced Labor Law in Dallas for 18 years, where he developed a national reputation. He has served as a member of the SMU Law School faculty since 1966, teaching courses in Labor and Employment Law, Arbitration, Constitutional Law, Civil Procedure, and Evidence. Professor Morris has held visiting faculty appointments at Cornell, University of San Diego and Monash University. He is the author of numerous articles on labor law and a number of books, including two editions of the seminal two volume treatise entitled The Developing Labor Law — The Board, the Courts and the National Labor Relations Act. Professor Morris has been a labor arbitrator since 1968 and has had active experience both in private sector industrial relations disputes and public sector grievance and interest disputes. Professor Morris' honors include a Presidential appointment to membership on the Federal Service Impasses Panel from 1978-82, membership in the National Academy of Arbitrators, the Industrial Relations Research Association, the American Arbitration Association, and the Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution. He will retire as Professor Emeritus of Law.

BENJAMIN A. PETTY

Professor Petty received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Tulane University in 1942, his Master of Divinity degree from Emory University in 1944, and his Ph.D. degree in Philosophy from Boston University in 1961. He has been at SMU for 38 years, teaching courses offered concurrently in two departments — Religious Studies and Philosophy. He was among the first to teach the Nature of Man course, and was one of the earliest professors involved in the Master of Liberal Arts Program. By his own account, he has, in 38 years of teaching at SMU, offered 33 different credit courses and 29 informal, non-credit courses 473 times with a total enrollment of 13,851 students (an average of 29 per class). In addition to chairing the Philosophy Department for four years, Professor Petty was secretary-treasurer of the SMU Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa for 16 years. He is currently in his 23rd year on the Health Professions Recommendations Committee and in his 25th year as secretary-treasurer of the SMU Chapter of the American Association of University Professors. Since 1975, he has served as a faculty marshal for Commencement each spring and, for the past several years, as platform marshal. He will retire as Associate Professor Emeritus of Philosophy.

Conchita Hassell Winn

Conchita Hassell Winn received her B.A. degree from Barnard College and began her teaching career in 1944 at Columbia University where she received her M.A. in Spanish in 1945, and her Ph.D. in Spanish and Spanish American Literature in 1953. She joined the SMU faculty in 1960 and has chaired the Spanish area of the Department of Foreign Languages, was acting chair of the Mexican American Studies program, and has been Director of the Latin American Studies program for many years. Her research interests include Peruvian literature and the Spanish language newspapers published in Texas. At SMU she has served on the Faculty Senate, the Planning Board, Undergraduate Councils, the All University and Dedman College Graduate Councils, MLA Council, the College Hispanic American Students Council and is one of the founders of the Women’s Symposium. Presently she is an officer of the Town and Gown Club. Honors received include SMU’s Outstanding Professor Award and M Award for University Service, and the AWS-Samotrace Award and the Hispanic American Students Award. She is an honorary member of the Pan American Round Table III of Dallas, and a Fellow of the Institute of Latin American Studies of the University of Texas at Austin. She will retire as Professor Emeritus of Spanish.
CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

GREER GARSON FOGELSON, Doctor of Arts
A respected leading actress in the British theatre, she brought her talents to this country and became one of the most sought-after and appreciated cinema actresses of our time. She brought to life before our eyes and captured our hearts with such indelible screen images as Mrs. Miniver and Madame Cutie. Her peers and even her critics honored her with seven Academy Award nominations, four New York Film Critics' Awards and the Golden Globe Award of the Foreign Press and Critics Association. We were joined by 10 other countries in naming her “best actress.” Her retirement from the world of acting simply expanded her contributions to the rest of the world, as she joined her late husband in becoming a benefactor to five educational institutions and in giving their own ranch as a wildlife refuge and National Historic Monument. In recognition of her rich heritage of screen and theatre accomplishments and of her far-sighted generosity serving education for future generations, we are pleased to confer upon her the degree of Doctor of Arts, honoris causa.

EDWARD C. FRITZ, Doctor of Humane Letters
Organizer of the National Forest Reform Network and founder of three state and local conservation organizations, he has dedicated much of his career to the preservation of nature’s wild places, especially our native forests. With conviction, determination and perseverance, he has been a leader in campaigning against indiscriminate and uncontrolled clearcutting. An attorney and the author of three books about forests, he has drafted federal forest legislation such as the 1984 East Texas Wilderness Act. To save the endangered Red-cockaded Woodpecker, he successfully took the U.S. Forest Service to court to stop clearcutting in 200,000 acres of East Texas forests. Believing that without natural diversity humanity may not survive, he has exerted leadership reflecting a deep love and reverence for plants, trees, prairies, hill country and wetlands and for the wildlife that depend upon them. In recognition of his insight and vision and his courageous leadership and distinguished service, we are pleased to confer upon him, an alumnus of our University, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

ROSS PEROT, Doctor of Humane Letters
Distinguished businessman, legendary entrepreneur, civic-minded advocate, he has exhibited singular vision as a leader of the information-systems revolution and as a reformer of public education. Founder of Electronic Data Systems, he developed the company into an industry leader. In 1979 he directed a team of EDS employees in rescuing two colleagues held hostage in Iran. Working with the U.S. government, he helped to change treatment of U.S. prisoners of war in North Vietnam. At the request of Texas Governor William P. Clements, he chaired the Texas' War on Drugs Committee, leading to the enactment of stricter anti-drug laws. For Texas Governor Mark White he headed the Select Committee on Public Education, resulting in passage of comprehensive reforms. Now chairman of Perot Systems Corporation, he continues his advocacy and philanthropy on behalf of education, health care and the arts. For his outstanding achievements serving society and the public good, SMU is pleased to confer upon him the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

DECHERD HENRY TURNER, Doctor of Humane Letters
With inexpressible energy, he has consecrated his creative vision to the priesthood of the book. He saw that the art of the book first flowered in the garden of theology. At SMU, he first brought birth to The Bridwell Library. From 1950 to 1980, he assembled one of the world's great collections of books, from the incunabula that enshrine the roots of Western culture in its first printed books to the rarest examples of fine art printing. In his writings and in the collections he chose, he has evoked and enshrined the seamless continuity of the creative process from the apparently secular to the explicitly sacred. With equal insistence he sustained theological research by expanding The Bridwell's scholarly holdings. That achievement, the core of his vocation, had as its capstone eight years as director of the Ransom Humanities Research Center at the University of Texas. In recognition of his commitment to culture, his abiding belief that the past empowers the future, and the excellence he has permanently bound for this University, we are pleased to confer upon him the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

DECEMBER 1990 GRADUATES

Degrees Conferred in Absentia December 15, 1990

IN DEDMAN COLLEGE

Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

Weihang Bao ........................................... Statistics
B.S., Fudan University, Republic of China
M.S., Southern Methodist University
Dissertation: "Simultaneous Selection of Local Bandwidth and Kernel Order"
Advisor: William Schucany

Michael Theodore Colucci III ...................... Geology
M.S., Rutgers University
Dissertation: "Precaldera Lava of the Southeast San Juan Volcanic Field: Parent Magmas and Crustal Interactions"
Advisor: Michael Dungan

Ruea Yea Huang ....................................... Biology
B.S., M.S., National Taiwan Normal University
Dissertation: "Eggshell Formation in Drosophila Melanogaster Molecular and Genetic Analysis of fl (l) dg 12, A Broad-Complex Mutant"
Advisor: William Orr

Steven Wayne Mueller ............................... Geophysics
B.A., M.S., Washington University, St. Louis
Dissertation: "Lithospheric Deformation and the Initiation of Subduction"
Advisor: Roger Phillips

Suzanne Elizabeth Smrekar .......................... Geophysics
B.S., Brown University
Dissertation: "Gravity and Topography of Venopian
Highlands: Implications for Formation Mechanisms"
Advisor: Roger Phillips

Debra Selsor Walker ................................. Anthropology
B.A., University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign
M.A., Southern Methodist University
Dissertation: "Cerros Revisited: Ceramic Indicators of Terminal Classic and Postclassic Settlement and Pilgrimage in Northern Belize"
Advisor: David Freidel

Anne Helene Wilton ................................. Geology
B.A., Amherst College
M.A., University of Texas, Austin
Dissertation: "Rodents of the La Venta Fauna,
Moctezuma, Columbia: Biostratigraphy and Paleoen-environmental Implications"
Advisor: Louis Jacobs

Wen Zhang ............................................. Applied Mathematics
B.S., Peking University
M.S., Southern Methodist University
Dissertation: "Numerical Solution of Ordinary Differential Equations with Applications"
Advisor: Ian Gladwell

IN THE SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND APPLIED SCIENCE

Degree of Doctor of Philosophy

Chung-Ming Chen ................................. Electrical Engineering
B.E., Feng Chia University
M.S.M.E., M.S.E., Southern Methodist University
Dissertation: "Minimum Time Trajectory Planning of Robot Manipulators"
Advisor: Behrouz Peikari

Chuan-Chang Chen ................................. Electrical Engineering
B.S., M.S., Chung Cheng Institute of Technology,
Taiwan
Dissertation: "A Scanning Tunneling Microscope
Design for Large-Scale Surface Imaging"
Advisor: W. Milton Gosney

Chih-Chwen Chuang ................................. Electrical Engineering
B.S., M.S., Southern Illinois University,
Carbondale
Dissertation: "Matrix Extension Of The RSA Algorithm"
Advisor: James George Dunham

Judith Shanks Denton ......................... Electrical Engineering
B.A., Vanderbilt University
M.A., Columbia University
M.S., Southern Methodist University
Dissertation: "A Methodology and Algorithms For Data Compression and Reconstruction Satisfying the Constraints of Space Science Research"
Advisor: Mandayam D. Sritharan

Chin-Feng Fan ..................................... Computer Science
B.A., National Taiwan University, Taiwan
M.S., Iowa State University
Dissertation: "Design and Performance Optimization
of a Multi-Rise Execution Model for Parallel Logic Programs"
Advisor: Prasenjit Biswas

Gia Loi Le Gruenwald ......................... Computer Science
B.S., University of Saigon and Faculty of Science,
Vietnam
M.S., University of Houston, University Park
Dissertation: "Reload in a Main Memory Database System: MARS"
Advisor: Margaret H. Eich
In the School of Law

Degree of Juris Doctor

Barbara Helen Brower Brettel
B.A., North Texas State University

Cynthia Anne Figueroa
B.A., Southern Methodist University

Gwendolyn Denice Gabriel
B.A.A., University of Texas, Austin

Victoria Ann Gallenberg-Baxter
B.A., University of Texas, Dallas

Carl Gunstak
B.A., University of Florida

Gary Lee Hauh
B.S.C.E., University of Texas, Arlington

Patricia Ann Houseman
B.A., M.A., North Texas State University

Kumar Thiagarajan
Operations Research
B.E., Bangalore University
M.Sc.Engg., Indian Institute of Science, India
M.S., University of Texas, Dallas
Dissertation: “Fractional Quadratic Zero-One Programs for Graph Partitioning and Hierarchical Clustering”
Advisor: Richard V. Helgason

Yao-Yi Yang
Electrical Engineering
B.S., Chung Cheng Institute of Technology, Taiwan
M.S.E., National Taiwan Institute of Technology, Taiwan
Dissertation: “MPSK Automatic Signal Classification”
Advisor: Samir S. Soliman

Degree of Master of Laws
(Comparative and International Law)

Keitaro Kanzaki
B.E., University of Tokyo

Yoshiaki Ohtsuka
L.L.B., University of Tokyo

Degree of Master of Laws

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The academic procession and the regalia worn by the faculty and officers of the University symbolically represent the continuing link between the modern American university and the founding of the great medieval universities in Europe — chief among them Bologna, Paris, and Oxford. As those institutions were derived from the Catholic Church, the universities adopted many of the ceremonial trappings of the Church in their official public functions.

The mace of the University, a symbol of the authority vested in the President by the Board of Trustees and representing the covenant between the President and the faculty, is borne by the President of the Faculty Senate, elected by representatives of all faculties (this year, Professor David B. Johnson of the Civil and Mechanical Engineering Department.) Though the order of the procession varies from university to university, at Southern Methodist University it proceeds from the chief marshal through the ranks of the faculty and the officers of the University, to the President, who is preceded by the mace-bearer. At Commencement, the candidates for graduation precede the faculty.

The caps and gowns worn in the procession also vary from place to place. There are variations in design to indicate the degrees held by the wearers, and many universities in America have introduced colorful gowns and other distinguishing details (in place of the customary clerical black from which all originated). The bachelor’s gown is a simple robe falling in straight lines from an elaborate yoke. Its distinguishing characteristic is the long pointed sleeves. Masters’ gowns are arranged so that the arm emerges from a long sleeve through a slit at the wrist (replacing the former slit at the elbow). In most cases, the doctor’s gown is marked by velvet panels down the front and around the neck, and by three bars of the same material on the bell-shaped sleeves. It is cut much fuller than the other gowns, and may be ornamented in color. Faculty colors are occasionally seen in the sleeve bars and paneling.

The caps, too, vary according to the customs of the university from which the wearer received a degree. While most American universities adopted the “mortarboard” style of Oxford, others have chosen styles based on other European institutions. The color of the tassel worn with the cap may be black for any degree; or, the color may be that of the faculty of the major field of learning (e.g. Arts, Engineering, Law, etc.) Persons holding doctoral degrees and governing officials of institutions are entitled to wear tassels of gold metallic thread. Such tassels are usually sewn in place. It is common practice, although not universal, that a ceremony is made of moving the tassel from the right side to the left of the cap at the moment the degree is awarded.

Within the great varieties of styles and colors in gowns and caps, there has been one universally accepted code for the hood worn trailing down the wearer’s back. Originally, it was like the hood on the habit worn by monks — and very useful, for protection against the weather and even for begging for alms. Nowadays, the hood through length and color shows the degree and the specialization of the wearer, and the university that granted the degree. The bachelor’s, master’s, and doctor’s hoods are three feet, three and one-half feet, and four feet long respectively. The velvet trimming in the same order is two, three, and five inches wide. The color of the trim identifies the faculty. A partial list of faculty colors follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Arts, Letters, Humanities</th>
<th>White</th>
<th>Music</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Business</td>
<td>Drab</td>
<td>Pink</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Engineering</td>
<td>Orange</td>
<td>Science</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fine Arts</td>
<td>Brown</td>
<td>Theology</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Law</td>
<td>Purple</td>
<td>Scarlet</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The lining of the hood — that portion most visible from the rear — indicates the institution awarding the degree. Southern Methodist University’s hood lining, for example, is blue with a red chevron.

Through these colorful ceremonies, Southern Methodist University symbolically displays the continuity of its educational purposes with the origins of organized learning in the Western world.
