

NINETY-SECOND ANNUAL
COMMENCEMENT CONVOCATION

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

SATURDAY MORNING
THE NINETEENTH OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND SEVEN
AT NINE-THIRTY O'CLOCK
MOODY COLISEUM

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

In 1911, a Methodist education commission made a commitment to establish a major Methodist university in Texas. More than 600 acres of open prairie and $300,000 pledged by a group of Dallas citizens secured the university for Dallas, and it was chartered as Southern Methodist University. In appreciation of the city's support, the first building to be constructed on the campus was named Dallas Hall. It remains the centerpiece and symbol of SMU. When the University opened in 1915, it consisted of two buildings, 706 students, a 35-member faculty, and total assets of $636,540. The original schools of SMU were the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Theology, and the School of Music.

SMU is owned by the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church. The first charge of its founders, however, was that it become a great university, not necessarily a great Methodist university. From its founding, SMU has been nonsectarian in its teaching and committed to the values of academic freedom and open inquiry.

Today, Southern Methodist University offers a comprehensive curriculum through Dedman College – the college of humanities and sciences – and six schools: Meadows School of the Arts, Edwin L. Cox School of Business, School of Engineering, Perkins School of Theology, Dedman School of Law, and School of Education and Human Development.

The University offers 125 undergraduate majors, Master's degrees in over 100 areas, professional degrees in two disciplines, Ph.D. degrees in 20 fields, and 14 certificate programs.

Enrollment for the 2006-2007 academic year was 12,026, including 6,548 undergraduate students and 5,474 graduate and professional school students. SMU students come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and 78 countries. About 80 percent of first-year students received some form of financial assistance for 2006-2007. About 22 percent of the student body are minorities; 68 percent of undergraduates and 55 percent of graduate students report religious affiliation; 21 percent are Methodist, 22 are Roman Catholic. Also represented in the student body are other Protestant denominations and other religions, including Judaism, Buddhism, and Islam.

In addition to preparing students for graduate and professional schools, or more directly for their life's work, the University strives to enhance their social, moral, intellectual, and religious development so that they may lead worthy lives as individuals and citizens of the nation and of the world.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION AND REGALIA

The academic procession and the regalia worn by the faculty and officers of the University symbolically represent the continuing link between the modern American university and the founding of the great medieval universities in Europe – chief among them Bologna, Paris, and Oxford. As those institutions were derived from the Catholic Church, the universities adopted many of the ceremonial trappings of the church in their official public functions.

The mace of the University, a symbol of the authority vested in the president by the Board of Trustees and representing the covenant between the president and the faculty, is borne by the president of the Faculty Senate. Though the order of the procession varies from university to university, at Southern Methodist University it proceeds from the chief marshal through the ranks of the faculty and the officers of the University to the president, who is preceded by the mace-bearer.

The caps and gowns worn in the procession also vary from place to place. There are variations in design to indicate the degrees held by the wearers, and many universities in America have introduced colorful gowns and other distinguishing details (in place of the customary clerical black from which all originated). The Bachelor's gown is a simple robe falling in straight lines from an elaborate yoke. Its distinguishing characteristic is the long pointed sleeves. Master's gowns are arranged so that the arm emerges from a long sleeve through a slit at the wrist (replacing a former slit at the elbow). In most cases, the Doctor's gown is marked by velvet panels down the front and around the neck, and by three bars of the same material on the bell-shaped sleeves. It is cut much fuller than the other gowns and may be ornamented in color. Faculty colors are occasionally seen in the sleeve bars and paneling.

The caps, too, vary according to the customs of the university from which the wearer received a degree. While most American universities adopted the "mortarboard" style of Oxford, others have chosen styles based on other European institutions. The color of the tassel worn with the cap may be black for any degree, or the color may be that of the faculty of the major field of learning (e.g., Arts, Engineering, Law, etc.). Persons holding doctoral degrees and governing officials of institutions are entitled to wear tassels of gold metallic thread. Such tassels are usually sewn in place. It is common practice, although not universal, that a ceremony is made of moving the tassel from the right to the left side of the cap at the moment the degree is awarded.

Within the great varieties of styles and colors in gowns and caps, there has been one universally accepted code for the hood worn trailing down the wearer's back. Originally, it was like the hood on the habit worn by monks. Nowadays, the hood through length and color shows the degree and the specialization of the wearer, and the university that granted the degree. The Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctor's hoods are 3 feet, 3¹/₂ feet, and 4 feet long, respectively. The velvet trimming in the same order is 2, 3, and 5 inches wide. The color of the trim identifies the faculty. A partial list of faculty colors follows: Arts, Letters, Humanities – White; Music – Pink; Business – Drab; Philosophy – Dark Blue; Engineering – Orange; Science – Golden Yellow; Fine Arts – Brown; Theology – Scarlet; Law – Purple. The lining of the hood – that portion most visible from the rear – indicates the institution awarding the degree. SMU's hood lining, for example, is blue with red chevron.

The University's ceremonial banners were designed by Robert B. Chambers, associate professor emeritus of theatre, Meadows School of the Arts, and fabricated by Mamie Chambers. The banners bear heraldic designs with the color of trim identifying each school and group ushered this morning.

Through these colorful ceremonies, SMU symbolically displays the continuity of its educational purposes with the origins of organized learning in the Western world.

MEADOWS WIND ENSEMBLE

JACK DELANEY, CONDUCTOR

The Meadows Wind Ensemble is a concert band of flexible proportions composed of the University's finest winds, brass, and percussion. The Wind Ensemble performs a broad and diverse range of literature and regularly augments its instrumentation to include strings in order to access the repertory of the modern chamber orchestra. Frequent collaborations with the Meadows Dance Ensemble/Company have further broadened the artistic range of the Ensemble.

The Meadows Wind Ensemble has performed at significant music festivals and conferences throughout the United States and Europe, and has won the acclaim of the world's leading contemporary composers for dynamic performances of their works, many of which were written on commission for the Ensemble. Performances and recordings of the Meadows Wind Ensemble have been broadcast by the BBC in London, NPR in the United States, and numerous national radio networks around the world. The Ensemble records on the Gasparo label.

Jack Delaney is Director of Bands at the Meadows School of the Arts at SMU. He has conducted student and professional ensembles throughout Europe, South America, Israel, and the United States. His numerous honors include the Algur H. Meadows Distinguished Teaching Professorship at the Meadows School of the Arts.

MORTAR BOARD

The SMU chapter of Mortar Board thanks you for purchasing flowers today to support its activities. Mortar Board is a national honor society of senior students recognized for their accomplishments of both academic excellence and service to the community. Proceeds from the flower sale will help enable students to conduct numerous service-oriented activities during the year. In addition to student and faculty recognition events, members plan to sponsor a book drive in keeping with the national theme "Reading is Leading."

RETIRING FACULTY

JOUETTE M. BASSLER

Jouette McCurdy Bassler, Professor of New Testament in Perkins School of Theology, earned two degrees in chemistry from Rice University — a B.A. summa cum laude and an M.A. degree — followed by a Ph.D. in New Testament from Yale University. Her earliest publications were in the field of chemistry, which may make her unique among New Testament scholars. After teaching for several years at Georgetown University, she came to Perkins in 1986. From 1997-2000 she served as Perkins' first woman associate dean for academic affairs. An outstanding scholar of the apostle Paul, the Pastoral Epistles and women in the New Testament, she has published six books and numerous articles in academic journals. She also served as editor of the Journal of Biblical Literature. Her research received funding from the Lilly Endowment Inc. A dedicated teacher as well as scholar, Professor Bassler received the first Virgil Howard Affirmation of Women Award honoring Perkins faculty for their encouragement of women students. Her Universitywide service included membership on the Provost's Advisory Council. She retires as Professor Emerita of New Testament.

DAVID B. JOHNSON

David B. Johnson, Professor of Mechanical Engineering in the School of Engineering, earned B.S.M.E. and M.S.M.E. degrees from the University of Texas at Austin and a Ph.D. from Stanford University. He joined the SMU faculty in 1968 and later served as associate chair and acting chair of the Department of Mechanical Engineering. A dedicated teacher, he has been honored with the Rotunda Outstanding Professor Award, Halliburton Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence, HOPE (Honoring Our Professors' Excellence) Award and several other Outstanding Professor awards. He has served the University as president of the Faculty Senate and as a member of the Council on General Education and numerous committees. Professor Johnson's research concentrations have included dynamics, advanced manufacturing processes and computer-aided design and analysis. He is the author of numerous papers in technical publications on subjects including vehicle dynamics and simulation of fluid flow. His research was supported by industry and several agencies, including the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Department of the Interior, National Science Foundation and Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. He retires as Professor Emeritus of Mechanical Engineering.

KAREN KRIETE

Karen Kriete, Assistant Professor of Dance in Meadows School of the Arts, trained at the School of American Ballet as a Ford Foundation Scholar and at the Harkness House for Ballet Arts, where she also served on the administrative staff and teaching faculty. She came to SMU in 1971 and played a major role in the rise of the Meadows Division of Dance to national distinction. A celebrated teacher, she has guided the artistic and technical development of SMU dance majors for 36 years. Many of her former students are enjoying prominent careers with professional dance companies. She has served as ballet mistress for the Meadows Dance Ensemble and as artistic director for many of the popular Brown Bag concerts. She also coordinated outreach to both private and public schools in the Metroplex and taught master classes for professional companies and schools. Professor Kriete is a member of the Congress on Research in Dance. She has received the Rotunda Outstanding Professor Award and several HOPE (Honoring Our Professors' Excellence) Awards. She retires as Professor Emerita of Dance.

RICHARD O. MASON

Richard O. Mason, Carr P. Collins Jr. Distinguished Professor of Management Information Sciences in the Cox School of Business, received his B.S. from Oregon State University and Ph.D. in Business Administration from the University of California at Berkeley. Before joining the Cox School in 1985, he held faculty and administrative positions at the University of Arizona, University of Southern California and University of California at Los Angeles. He was instrumental in building the Cox School's management information systems program and expanding its visibility in the business community. He also served as director of the Maguire Center for Ethics and Public Responsibility at SMU from 1998 to 2005. His extensive research has produced several books and numerous professional journal articles. His pioneering work on ethical issues in the use of information technology has had a significant impact on both academia and industry. Professor Mason was honored nationally as one of the top 35 MIS consultants in 1988 and in 2001 received the Leo Award and AIS Fellowship for lifelong contribution to the information systems field. His national public service has included the President's Commission on Competitiveness in Washington, D.C. He retires as the Carr P. Collins Jr. Distinguished Chair and Professor Emeritus of Management Information Sciences.

C. GARTH SAMPSON

C. Garth Sampson, Professor of Anthropology in Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences, earned B.A. degrees from the University of Cape Town and Cambridge University and his Ph.D. from Oxford University, all in archaeology. He joined the SMU faculty in 1972, later serving as chair of the Department of Anthropology and secretary of the Institute for the Study of Earth and Man. He also has held positions at other institutions, including the National Museum of South Africa and the University of Witwatersrand in South Africa. Professor Sampson is an internationally known research archaeologist with primary interests in pre-farming communities of hunter-foragers. Although his research areas have included the United States, England, Iran and Zambia, his main focus has been central South Africa, particularly the Seacow River Valley, where he has headed a large-scale Stone Age project for the last 28 years. He has published 13 books and monographs and some 70 papers on archaeological topics, ranging from the Lower Palaeolithic to the historical Contact periods. He has received numerous research grants, primarily from the National Science Foundation. He retires as Professor Emeritus of Anthropology.

DON UMPHREY

Don Umphrey, Associate Professor of Advertising in Meadows School of the Arts, earned his B.A. degree from Lipscomb University, M.A. from Texas Tech University, and Ph.D. from the University of Texas at Austin. After several years as a print journalist in Michigan, he taught at the University of Texas and Texas Tech before joining the SMU faculty in 1986. He has taught advertising, consumer behavior and screenwriting in the Meadows School. Professor Umphrey is the author of six books, and his research has been published in numerous scholarly journals, both national and international in scope. His research has focused on television audience studies, theories of social psychology applied to mass communication and attitudes/aptitudes of university advertising majors. As a consultant to former Texas Governor William P. Clements, he conducted the initial study on the economic impact of the motion picture industry on the state of Texas. He has received three awards for academic research, two teaching awards, two awards as a television producer and one as a poet. He retires as Professor Emeritus of Advertising.

ANDRÉ WINANDY

André Winandy, Professor of French in Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences, received his B.A. degree from Denison University, his M.A. degree from the Johns Hopkins University, and his Ph.D. degree in romance languages and literatures from the University of Pittsburgh. Before joining the SMU faculty in 1974, he was a member of the French faculty at Yale University, where he also served as managing editor of Yale French Studies and directed the Yale Summer Language Institute. Previously he taught at Chatham College. At SMU, he served as chair of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures from 1974-79. He also served as director of SMU-in-Paris and area chair of French and taught at SMU programs in the South of France. Professor Winandy has presented papers at numerous professional meetings and published extensively in the field of Medieval and Renaissance French literature with a focus on narrative structure. He served on the advisory board of Allegorica and was named a fellow of Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique in Paris. He retires as Professor Emeritus of French.

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

BILL MOYERS, Doctor of Humane Letters

Bill Moyers — journalist, filmmaker, author — has been a central figure in the nation's exploration of ideas. He earned a B.A. degree in journalism from the University of Texas at Austin and a B.D. from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He began his career at small-town newspapers and pulpits before entering public service as Special Assistant and White House Press Secretary to President Lyndon B. Johnson. After resuming his journalism career as publisher of Newsday, he turned from print to television in 1971 as producer and host of Bill Moyers' Journal for PBS and later as commentator for CBS and founder of Public Affairs Television in 1986. He has produced some of television's most incisive investigative documentaries, exploring global issues and providing an informed perspective on American political, economic and social concerns. Several of his television programs became best-selling books. He has received virtually every major television journalism honor, including more than 30 Emmy Awards, a lifetime Peabody Award and election to the Television Hall of Fame and American Academy of Arts and Sciences. For his role as an explorer and interpreter of American ideas and ideals, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Bill Moyers the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

WILLIAM T. SOLOMON, Doctor of Humane Letters

William T. Solomon — engineer, corporate leader, civic servant — has played a pivotal role in expanding opportunities for Dallas citizens. With a B.S. in civil engineering from SMU and an M.B.A from Harvard University, he began his career with Austin Industries, Inc., a leader in commercial construction, in 1967. As president, he transformed it into an employee-owned corporation with a diverse workforce. The firm's local landmark buildings include American Airlines Center, D/FW Airport's International Terminal and SMU's Meadows Museum. As co-founder of the Dallas Together Forum, he helped increase economic opportunities for minorities. He has served as chair of the Dallas Citizens Council and Greater Dallas Chamber of Commerce and on numerous boards, including the SMU Board of Trustees and the boards of UT Southwestern Medical Foundation, Salvation Army and Dallas Museum of Art. His civic honors include the Linz Award, J. Erik Jonsson Ethics Award from SMU's Cary M. Maguire Center for Ethics and Public Responsibility and Humanitarian Award from the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He received SMU's Distinguished Alumni Award and the SMU Engineering Hall of Leaders Award. For his leadership in expanding opportunities for human achievement and economic vitality, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon William T. Solomon the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

MARSHALL NORTHWAY TERRY, Doctor of Humane Letters

Marshall Northway Terry — writer, educator, mentor — has devoted his life to SMU, where he earned both B.A. and M.A. degrees and began teaching English in 1954. As director of public relations and assistant to SMU President Willis M. Tate from 1957 to 1965, he coordinated and wrote the Master Plan of 1963, which reaffirmed and articulated the University's mission. He twice chaired the English Department, introduced and directed its creative writing program and founded the SMU Literary Festival. He also directed SMU programs in Madrid, Oxford and Taos and served as associate provost for undergraduate education. He is the author of 11 books, including novels, short stories and a history of SMU. His numerous writing honors include the Barbara McCombs/Lon Tinkle Award, the highest honor of the Texas Institute of Letters. SMU has honored him with the Distinguished Alumni Award, "M" Award, three Rotunda Outstanding Professor Awards and two Willis M. Tate Awards for Outstanding Faculty. He is the E.A. Lilly Distinguished Professor of English and will retire this year as Professor Emeritus after more than 50 years at the heart of SMU. For his extraordinary contributions to this institution, to generations of students and to the art of literature, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Marshall Northway Terry the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

BACCALAUREATE PREACHER

PAUL L. RASMUSSEN

The Reverend Paul L. Rasmussen has been an associate pastor of Highland Park United Methodist Church since 2000. As pastor and preacher for Cornerstone, the Church's contemporary worship community, he has built the alternative Sunday morning service from an average attendance of 100 to 1,100 weekly. The Rev. Rasmussen also serves as one of 12 volunteer chaplains for the Dallas Police Department, assisting with public events and serving the private spiritual and ceremonial needs of the police force. A fourth-generation Methodist minister, the Rev. Rasmussen grew up in Shreveport. He earned a B.A. degree cum laude in history from Centenary College of Louisiana in 1990, followed by a Master's degree in sports management from the University of Richmond in 1992. Returning to his undergraduate alma mater, he served Centenary as assistant basketball coach and recruiting coordinator from 1992-97. He also created and produced the Inside Centenary Basketball television program. In addition to his responsibilities with the basketball program, he served for one year as Centenary's assistant athletic director for development and marketing and another year as director of annual giving. In the latter role, he led the most successful annual fund campaign in Centenary's 171-year history. After moving to Dallas in 1997, he worked for Baylor SportsCare and a sports marketing company before joining the staff of Highland Park United Methodist Church in 2000. While serving on the Church's staff, he earned a Master of Divinity degree from SMU's Perkins School of Theology in 2005.

IN THE GUILDHALL AT SMU, LINDA AND MITCH HART eCENTER
DEGREES CONFERRED MARCH 24, 2007*

Degree of Master of Interactive Technology

Brandi Alotto Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.A. Loyola University in New Orleans
Thesis: "How Level Designers Affect Player Pathing Decisions: Player Manipulation Through Level Design"

Susan Arnold Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.A. Austin College
Thesis: "Can Great Graphics Overcome Mediocre Gameplay?"

Joshua Ezell Black Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.A. University of Alabama
Thesis: "The Hero and the Prize: Mythic Structure and Narrative Incarnation in Quest Design"

Arturo A. Caballero Digital Game Development, Software Development
B.S. Stanford University
Thesis: "Playstation 2 Terrain Rendering Utilizing the Vector Units"

Mark Flieg, Jr. Digital Game Development, Art Creation
B.A. Missouri State University
Thesis: "The Depiction of Emotion Through Character Animation to Intensify Player Immersion"

Jonathan Hemingway Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.S. Utah State University
Thesis: "Can Cognitive Puzzle-Centric Game Play Captivate a First Person Shooter Audience?"

Travis Creighton Hoffstetter Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.S. Saint Louis University, Main Campus
Thesis: "Techniques of Balancing Two Flag, Asymmetrical Capture the Flag Levels"

Ryan Bradlee Jenkins Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.S.E.E. Southern Methodist University
B.A. Southern Methodist University
Thesis: "Trading Camera For Controller: The Use and Effectiveness of Cinematic Techniques in In-Game Machinima Style Cut-Scenes"

Joo-Won Kim Digital Game Development, Art Creation
B.S. University of Texas, Dallas
Thesis: "Hagia Sophia"

Timothy Locke Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.S. Canisius College
Thesis: "Smooth, Artistic Transitions Between Highly Contrasting Environments"

Justin Maurice Marcus Digital Game Development, Software Development
B.S. University of Texas, Dallas
Thesis: "A Method for Editing Procedural Game Content"

Dane Frederick Munkholm Digital Game Development, Art Creation
B.F.A. University of Oklahoma, Norman
Thesis: "Body Armor Study: Modeling and Normal Mapping Techniques"

David Lindsey Pittman Digital Game Development, Software Development
B.S. University of Nebraska - Lincoln
Thesis: "Practical Development Of Goal-Oriented Action Planning AI"

Jonathan Kyle Pittman Digital Game Development, Software Development
B.S. University of Nebraska - Lincoln
Thesis: "GAIA: Designed Procedural Content Generation"

Brandon R. Souders Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.F.A. Texas State University
Thesis: "The Imperative Nature of Communication and Understanding Through Geometric Form Within Virtual Environments"

James Marshall Stewart Digital Game Development, Software Development
B.A. University of Texas, Austin
M.S. State University of New York, New Paltz
Thesis: "Pathfinding Over Streaming Terrain"

Andrew Mark Strickland Digital Game Development, Art Creation
B.A. Trinity University
Thesis: "Characterization and Personality as Conveyed Through Cartoon Animation in a 3D Space"

Andres Elias Gonzalez Tahhan Digital Game Development, Level Design
B.S.Cpe. Universidad Simon Bolivar, Venezuela
Thesis: "Creating Meaningful Choices in Single Player First Person Shooter Levels With Modifiable Spaces"

Daniel Charles Talaber Digital Game Development, Software Development
B.S. Virginia Polytechnic Institute And State University
Thesis: "Deformable Geometry Using Volumetric Data"

Benjamin Cole Wagley Digital Game Development, Art Creation
B.S. Saint Leo College
Thesis: "Motion Capture, Key-Framed, and Simulated Animation Techniques"

SMU MAIN CAMPUS

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

*Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

Varsity

*Oh we see the Varsity,
Varsity, Varsity,
As she towers o'er the hill
Over there.
And our hearts are filled with joy,
SMU, SMU,
Alma Mater, we'll be true
Forever!*
