

SPAN 4341 - Vocal Voyages: Exploring the World Through Speech Sounds

Credits: 3

Explores how we create, hear, and structure speech sounds across languages. Investigates their historical changes; regional and social differences; and their role in language learning, speech disorders, and hearing. Features a special focus on Spanish with comparisons to English and other languages. Prerequisite: C- or better in SPAN 4301.