WORDS OF WELCOME

R. Gerald Turner
President of the University

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Stephen W. Rankin
Chaplain and Minister to the University

PSALM 145: SELECTED VERSES

I will extol you, O my God and King
And I will bless your name forever and ever.
Great is the Lord and highly to be praised
And His greatness is unsearchable.
Generation after generation praises your works
And proclaims your might.
Let all your works give you thanks O Lord
And let your faithful ones bless you.
The Lord is faithful in all his words
And holy in all his works.
You open your hand
And satisfy the desire of every living thing.
May my mouth speak the praise of the Lord
And may all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

INVOCATION

Judith H. Henneberger
Associate Chaplain and Minister to the University

*The congregation rises when the procession reaches the doors of the auditorium.

HYMN TO JOY

Praise the Source of Faith and Learning

Imperial Brass

Budi Taniwan, vocals

Minister of Music and Liturgy University Worship

Praise the Source of faith and learning Who has sparked and stoked the mind with a passion for discerning how the world has been designed.
Let the sense of wonder flowing from the wonders we survey keep our faith forever growing and renew our need to pray.

God of wisdom, we acknowledge that our science and our art and the breadth of human knowledge only partial truth impart.
Far beyond our calculation lies a depth we cannot sound
where Your purpose for creation and the pulse of life are found.

May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought has displaced the grounds for wonder which the ancient prophets taught.
May our learning curb the error which unthinking faith can breed lest we justify some terror with an antiquated creed.

As two currents in a river fight each other's undertow
till converging they deliver one coherent steady flow.
Blend, O God, our faith and learning till they carve a single course, till they join as one returning, praise and thanks to You, their Source.

RESPONSIVE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Blake P. Rankin

Candidate for degree of Bachelor of Science in Economics with Financial Applications

Holy God, You have called us to be diligent teachers and eager learners in all that we do, both in this community and in Your larger world. Now send us forth into that world as Your willing servants.

Give us the strength lightly to bear our joys and sorrows.

Give us the strength to make our love fruitful in service.

Give us the strength never to disown the poor or bend our knees before insolent might.

Give us the strength to raise our minds high above earthly trifles.

And give us the strength to surrender our strength to Your will with love. Amen.

- Hindu Prayer

HYMN

Forth in Thy Name, O Lord

Imperial Brass

Budi Taniwan, vocals

Forth in Thy name, O Lord, I go,
My daily labor to pursue;
Thee, only Thee, resolved to know
in all I think or speak or do.

The task Thy wisdom hath assigned,
o let me cheerfully fulfill;
in all my words Thy presence find,
and prove Thy good and perfect will.

Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes mine in most substance see,
and labor on at Thy command,
and offer all my works to Thee.

For Thee delightfully employ
whate'er Thy bounteous grace hath given;
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with Thee to heaven.

THE BLESSINGS AND RESPONSE

Chaplain Rankin

The time has come to go forth.

Senior Class: We go in thanksgiving for all we have learned.

This is a bittersweet moment.

Senior Class: We rejoice in our growth and in bonds of friendship, even as we bid farewell.

This is a moment of anticipation.

Senior Class: We look forward with excitement, eager to embrace all that awaits us.

Go now in peace and hope, and may blessing accompany you always. Amen.

Please stay in place for the Rotunda Recessional, which will follow immediately.

THE ROTUNDA RECESSIONAL

One of the University's most symbolic traditions is Rotunda Passage, which includes both a processional and a recessional. Many of tonight's candidates for graduation began their lives at SMU by processing through the Rotunda of Dallas Hall to Opening Convocation in this auditorium, symbolizing their entrance to SMU. Tonight, all candidates will recess through the Rotunda as a symbolic departure from campus and out into their future as the newest members of the SMU Alumni family. Alumni who are parents of graduating seniors are serving as marshals for tonight's recessional. They will help line the path between McFarlin Memorial Auditorium and Dallas Hall for the recessional participants.

REMARKS

Chandler Schlegel
The Union President, Class of 2013

Following her remarks, the president of the Senior Class will pass the lantern that signifies continuity to the Class of 2014, represented by Michael Whitley Graves.

Leslie Long Melson '77
Chair of the SMU Alumni Board

CALL TO THE RECESSIONAL

Thomas B. Fomby
Chief Marshal

VARSITY

Imperial Brass
Ryan Cole and Jacqueline Rodriguez, vocals
Candidate for degree of Bachelor of Music Education and Candidate for degree of Bachelor of Music, Voice Performance and Music Education, respectively

Oh we see the Varsity,
Varsity, Varsity,
As she towers o'er the hill
Over there.
And our hearts are filled with joy,
SMU, SMU,
Alma Mater, we'll be true
Forever!

Following Varsity, all candidates will remain standing. As soon as the platform party is organized in a central aisle, ushers will help guests assemble on both sides of the walk to Dallas Hall. As guests fill the walkways, the platform party will lead the Rotunda Recessional. Marshals will organize the candidates' march.

MICHAEL MCKEE

Michael McKee was elected as a United Methodist bishop and assigned to the Dallas Area in July 2012. That same month, he was also elected to the SMU Board of Trustees. He earned a Bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at Austin and a Master of Theology degree from SMU's Perkins School of Theology.

Before his election as bishop, he served as pastor at several churches in North and Central Texas. Beyond the local church, his leadership has included serving as a member of the General Board of Church and Society, chair of the Texas Methodist Foundation Board of Trustees and member of the board of Harris Methodist Health Systems. At SMU, Bishop McKee chairs the Perkins School of Theology Executive Board and co-chairs the Perkins Steering Committee for SMU's Second Century Campaign.

He previously was chair of the Perkins Alumni Council. He has provided leadership to his community as president of the Board of Directors of Women's Haven of Tarrant County and chair of the Advisory Board for the "More Than Houses" campaign of Habitat for Humanity. Among his honors are the Founder's Award of Trinity Area Habitat for Humanity and the Bishop's Award in Preaching from the Central Texas Annual Conference.

THE SMU MCKENZIE BIBLE

The McKenzie Bible was printed in 1856 and once was the property of J.W.P. McKenzie, a pioneer in Methodist education in Texas. It was used continually by McKenzie, who established McKenzie College at Clarksville, once the largest institution of higher learning in Texas. This historic Bible was presented to SMU in 1916 by Mrs. Milton Ragsdale of Dallas, a niece of McKenzie.

The McKenzie Bible was first used at SMU's 1916 Commencement Convocation, and the University is proud to use it at tonight's Baccalaureate Service.
