SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

In 1911, a Methodist education commission made a commitment to establish a major Methodist university in Texas. More than 600 acres of open prairie and $300,000 pledged by a group of Dallas citizens secured the university for Dallas, and it was chartered as Southern Methodist University. In appreciation of the city's support, the first building to be constructed on the campus was named Dallas Hall. It remains the centerpiece and symbol of SMU. When the University opened in 1915, it consisted of two buildings, 706 students, a 35-member faculty, and total assets of $636,540. The original schools of SMU were the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Theology, and the School of Music.

SMU is owned by the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church. The first charge of its founders, however, was that it become a great university, not necessarily a great Methodist university. From its founding, SMU has been nonsectarian in its teaching and committed to the values of academic freedom and open inquiry.

Today, Southern Methodist University offers a comprehensive curriculum through Dedman College – the college of humanities and sciences – and six schools: Meadows School of the Arts, Edwin L. Cox School of Business, Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering, Perkins School of Theology, Dedman School of Law, and Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development.

The University offers over 100 undergraduate majors, Master's degrees in over 100 areas, professional degrees in two disciplines, Ph.D. degrees in 24 fields, and 30 certificate programs.

Enrollment for the Spring 2010 term was 10,486, including 5,950 undergraduate students and 4,536 graduate and professional school students. SMU students come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and 86 countries. About 76 percent of first-year students received some form of financial assistance for Spring 2010. About 19 percent of the student body are minorities; 64 percent of undergraduates and 54 percent of graduate students report religious affiliation; 14 percent are Roman Catholic, and 11 percent are Methodist. Also represented in the student body are other Protestant denominations and other religions, including Judaism, Buddhism, and Islam.

In addition to preparing students for graduate and professional schools, or more directly for their life's work, the University strives to enhance their social, moral, intellectual, and religious development so that they may lead worthy lives as individuals and citizens of the nation and of the world.

THE HISTORY OF ACADEMIC PROCESSION AND REGALIA

The academic procession and the regalia worn by the faculty and officers of the University symbolically represent the continuing link between the modern American university and the founding of the great medieval universities in Europe – chief among them Bologna, Paris, and Oxford. As those institutions were derived from the Catholic Church, the universities adopted many of the ceremonial trappings of the church in their official public functions.

The mace of the University, a symbol of the authority vested in the president by the Board of Trustees and representing the covenant between the president and the faculty, is borne by the president of the Faculty Senate. Though the order of the procession varies from university to university, at SMU it proceeds from the Chief Marshal through the ranks of the faculty and the officers of the University to the president, who is preceded by the mace-bearer.

The caps and gowns worn in the procession also vary from place to place. There are variations in design to indicate the degrees held by the wearers, and many universities in America have introduced colorful gowns and other distinguishing details (in place of the customary clerical black from which all originated). The caps, too, vary according to the customs of the university from which the wearer received a degree. While most American universities adopted the “mortarboard” style of Oxford, others have chosen styles based on other European institutions. The color of the tassel worn with the cap may be black for any degree, or the color may be that of the faculty of the major field of learning (e.g., Arts, Engineering, Law, etc.). Persons holding doctoral degrees and governing officials of institutions are entitled to wear tassels of gold metallic thread.

Within the great varieties of styles and colors in gowns and caps, there has been one universally accepted code for the hood worn trailing down the wearer’s back. Originally, it was like the hood on the habit worn by monks and very useful for protection against the weather and even for begging for alms. Nowadays, the hood through length and color shows the degree and the specialization of the wearer, and the university that granted the degree.

Through these colorful ceremonies, SMU symbolically displays the continuity of its educational purposes with the origins of organized learning in the Western world.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY’S CUSTOM REGALIA

Candidates for degrees at SMU are robed in custom regalia, inaugurated in 2009, specially designed to incorporate SMU’s colors and symbols.

The Doctoral gown in dark blue includes velvet chevrons on each of the bell sleeves. The gown is marked by velvet panels down the front and around the neck. The front panels are embroidered in gold thread with the SMU seal, and gold braid outlines the chevrons and panels. It is cut much fuller than the other gowns and may be ornamented in color. Replacing the traditional mortarboard, an eight-sided, crimson red velvet tam with a gold silk tassel completes the regalia.

The Master's gown, also in dark blue, has a front yolk outlined in red braid and the SMU seal is embroidered in red on the left side. Like traditional Master's robes, gowns are arranged so that the arm emerges from a long sleeve through a slit at the wrist. A mortarboard with a colored tassel representing the discipline in which the degree is earned is also worn.

Doctoral and Master's candidates wear hoods which are 3 ½ feet, and 4 feet long, respectively. The velvet trimming in the same order is 3 and 5 inches wide. The color of the trim identifies the faculty. A partial list of faculty colors follows: Arts, Letters, Humanities – White; Music – Pink; Business – Drab; Philosophy – Dark Blue; Engineering – Orange; Science – Golden Yellow; Fine Arts – Brown; Theology – Scarlet; Law – Purple. The lining of the hood – the portion most visible from the rear – indicates the institution awarding the degree. SMU's hood lining is blue with a red chevron.

The Bachelor gown in dark blue has the traditional characteristics of a Bachelor robe including full front pleats, and balanced fluting. Its distinguishing characteristic is the long pointed sleeves. A red silk stole embroidered in blue with the SMU seal is worn across the shoulders. Bachelor gowns are worn with a tassel and mortarboard.

SMU's regalia visually honor the University's traditions and spirit which we celebrate this morning.

THE HOWARD LANTERN

The Howard Lantern is dedicated to Professor Lorn Lambier Howard, Chief Marshal Emeritus of SMU from 1978-1987, in honor of his role in shaping the traditions and protocol of SMU's modern-day academic ceremonies. Designed in 2008 and crafted out of steel, aluminum and water glass, the lantern symbolizes the Rotunda of Dallas Hall, the University's oldest building and centerpiece of our campus. Engraved around the top band is the University's motto, "veritas liberabit vos," which means "the truth will make you free." Around the base are the words to Varsity, SMU's alma mater. Each year during the May Baccalaureate Service this lantern is handed down by the Senior Class President to a representative of the Junior Class, a symbolic passing of the light that sustains our University. The Howard Lantern serves as a reminder of the important traditions which make up our corporate University life and of the light of learning and intellectual curiosity which shines within the students, faculty and staff here at SMU.

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES *

JORIE GRAHAM, Doctor of Humane Letters

Jorie Graham, Pulitzer Prize-winning poet and MacArthur Award winner, currently is Boylston Professor of Rhetoric at Harvard University. She has been an accomplished and controversial figure since the publication of her first volume, Hybrids of Plants and of Ghosts, 30 years ago. Expanding the limits of poetry to incorporate an ever-enlarging focus on history, social and scientific issues, as well as the traditional subjects of love and the inner life, she has changed what we think of as a poem. Raised in Rome and educated at the Sorbonne and New York University, Graham taught at the Iowa Writers Workshop before assuming the Harvard chair formerly occupied by John Quincy Adams, Robert Fitzgerald and Seamus Heaney. She has affected the lives of both students and readers, and has proved that poetry has an urgent hold on us in the 21st century. For her contributions to literature, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Jorie Graham the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

KARINNA A. MOSKALENKO, Doctor of Laws

Karinna Akopovna Moskalenko, Russia's leading human rights lawyer, studied law at Leningrad State University and later specialized in human rights at the University of Birmingham in England. She is respected worldwide for her advocacy on behalf of clients rich and poor, voiceless casualties of war and vocal critics of the Kremlin. Moskalenko and her team at the International Protection Centre, the human rights organization she founded, have won more than 90 cases before the European Court of Human Rights, whose judgments have been legally binding on Russia since 1998. She puts personal principle above social standing and social justice above personal safety. She has been elected to the International Commission of Jurists and awarded the International Helsinki Federation's Human Rights Recognition Award and the Justice William J. Brennan Award. For her defense of human rights and support for the rule of law in Russia, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Karinna Akopovna Moskalenko the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa.

SAUL PERLMUTTER, Doctor of Science

Saul Perlmutter is professor of physics at the University of California, Berkeley, where he earned his Ph.D., and is head of the Supernova Cosmology Project at the U.S. Department of Energy's Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. He leads an international team that studies distant exploding stars to measure how fast the universe was expanding at different times in its history. His work, using novel observational techniques, contradicted the long-held assumption that expansion of the universe is slowing due to gravity. Perlmutter's research provided firm evidence for the existence of dark energy as the majority substance of the universe, a substance whose precise nature remains a major mystery in physics. For his contributions to understanding of the fundamental nature of the universe, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Saul Perlmutter the degree of Doctor of Science, honoris causa.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

RON KIRK

Ron Kirk, former Dallas mayor, was appointed United States Trade Representative by President Barack Obama in 2009. He serves as the nation's chief advisor, negotiator and spokesperson for trade. The Office of the U.S. Trade Representative develops and coordinates U.S. international trade, commodity and direct investment policy, and oversees negotiations with other countries. Kirk received his B.A. degree in political science and sociology from Austin College in Sherman, Texas, and his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law. As Dallas' first African-American mayor from 1995-2001, he expanded the city's international reach through a range of trade programs and missions. Previously he served as Texas Secretary of State, as a legislative aide to U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen and as chair of Texas' General Service Commission. He also served as a Dallas assistant city attorney. Before his appointment as U.S. Trade Representative, Kirk was a partner at Houston-based Vinson & Elkins LLP. He was named one of "The 50 Most Influential Minority Lawyers in America" by The National Law Journal in 2008, and one of the nation's top government relations lawyers by the Best Lawyers in America from 2007-2009. Kirk has been a member of the advisory board of SMU's Hart Global Leaders Forum since its inception in 1997 and has served as its chair. In 2001 he was named an honorary alumnus of SMU's Dedman School of Law.

BACCALAUREATE PREACHER

REV. DR. STEPHEN W. RANKIN

The Rev. Dr. Stephen W. Rankin, Senior Chaplain and Minister to the University at Southern Methodist University, is a native of Kansas. He graduated from Saint Paul School of Theology in 1986 after spending three years in Italy serving an expatriate congregation. Dr. Rankin went on to complete a Master of Theology Degree, followed by a Doctor of Philosophy from the Joint Program in Religious Studies at Northwestern University and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary. Dr. Rankin is recognized as an innovative leader in United Methodist campus ministry. Since 1995, Dr. Rankin has worked in higher education, both as professor and as campus minister. His ongoing scholarly interests focus on fresh applications of Wesleyan theology with Christian formation, particularly as it relates to college students and the development of young leaders. From this research have come a number of book chapters and articles for both scholarly and church-related publications.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

*Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

VARSAITY

*Oh we see the Varsity,
Varsity, Varsity,
As she towers o'er the hill
Over there.
And our hearts are filled with joy,
SMU, SMU,
Alma Mater, we'll be true
Forever!*
