We celebrate the graduation of thousands of SMU students as we mark the centennial year of SMU's founding in 1911. On this unique occasion, we salute our graduates, who stand ready to take the next steps into the future. And we honor the students, faculty, parents and friends who shaped SMU's first 100 years and laid the foundation for an extraordinary second century.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

In 1911, a Methodist education commission made a commitment to establish a major Methodist university in Texas. More than 600 acres of open prairie and $300,000 pledged by a group of Dallas citizens secured the university for Dallas, and it was chartered as Southern Methodist University. In appreciation of the city's support, the first building to be constructed on the campus was named Dallas Hall. It remains the centerpiece and symbol of SMU. When the University opened in 1915, it consisted of two buildings, 706 students, a 35-member faculty, and total assets of $636,540. The original schools of SMU were the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Theology, and the School of Music.

SMU is owned by the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church. The first charge of its founders, however, was that it become a great university, not necessarily a great Methodist university. From its founding, SMU has been nonsectarian in its teaching and committed to the values of academic freedom and open inquiry.

Today, Southern Methodist University offers a comprehensive curriculum through Dedman College – the college of humanities and sciences – and six schools: Meadows School of the Arts, Edwin L. Cox School of Business, Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering, Perkins School of Theology, Dedman School of Law, and Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development.

The University offers over 100 undergraduate majors, Master's degrees in over 100 areas, professional degrees in two disciplines, Ph.D. degrees in 24 fields, and 30 certificate programs.

Enrollment for the Spring 2011 term was 10,595, including 5,899 undergraduate students and 4,621 graduate and professional school students. SMU students come from 49 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and 97 countries. About 73 percent of first-year students received some form of financial assistance for Spring 2011. About 25 percent of the student body are minorities; 67 percent of undergraduates and 53 percent of graduate students report religious affiliation; 16 percent are Roman Catholic, and 11 percent are Methodist. Also represented in the student body are other Protestant denominations and other religions, including Judaism, Buddhism, Islam, and Hindu.

In addition to preparing students for graduate and professional schools, or more directly for their life's work, the University strives to enhance their social, moral, intellectual, and religious development so that they may lead worthy lives as individuals and citizens of the nation and of the world.

THE HISTORY OF ACADEMIC PROCESSION AND REGALIA

The academic procession and the regalia worn by the faculty and officers of the University symbolically represent the continuing link between the modern American university and the founding of the great medieval universities in Europe – chief among them Bologna, Paris, and Oxford. As those institutions were derived from the Catholic Church, the universities adopted many of the ceremonial trappings of the church in their official public functions.

The mace of the University, a symbol of the authority vested in the president by the Board of Trustees and representing the covenant between the president and the faculty, is borne by the president of the Faculty Senate. Though the order of the procession varies from university to university, at SMU it proceeds from the Chief Marshal through the ranks of the faculty and the officers of the University to the president, who is preceded by the mace-bearer.

The caps and gowns worn in the procession also vary from place to place. There are variations in design to indicate the degrees held by the wearers, and many universities in America have introduced colorful gowns and other distinguishing details (in place of the customary clerical black from which all originated). The caps, too, vary according to the customs of the university from which the wearer received a degree. While most American universities adopted the “mortarboard” style of Oxford, others have chosen styles based on other European institutions. The color of the tassel worn with the cap may be black for any degree, or the color may be that of the faculty of the major field of learning (e.g., Arts, Engineering, Law, etc.). Persons holding doctoral degrees and governing officials of institutions are entitled to wear tassels of gold metallic thread.

Within the great varieties of styles and colors in gowns and caps, there has been one universally accepted code for the hood worn trailing down the wearer’s back. Originally, it was like the hood on the habit worn by monks and very useful for protection against the weather and even for begging for alms. Nowadays, the hood through length and color shows the degree and the specialization of the wearer, and the university that granted the degree.

Through these colorful ceremonies, SMU symbolically displays the continuity of its educational purposes with the origins of organized learning in the Western world.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY’S CUSTOM REGALIA

Candidates for degrees at SMU are robed in custom regalia, inaugurated in 2009, specially designed to incorporate SMU’s colors and symbols.

The Doctoral gown in dark blue includes velvet chevrons on each of the bell sleeves. The gown is marked by velvet panels down the front and around the neck. The front panels are embroidered in gold thread with the SMU seal, and gold braid outlines the chevrons and panels. It is cut much fuller than the other gowns and may be ornamented in color. Replacing the traditional mortarboard, an eight-sided, crimson red velvet tam with a gold silk tassel completes the regalia.

The Master's gown, also in dark blue, has a front yolk outlined in red braid and the SMU seal is embroidered in red on the left side. Like traditional Master's robes, gowns are arranged so that the arm emerges from a long sleeve through a slit at the wrist. A mortarboard with a colored tassel representing the discipline in which the degree is earned is also worn.

Doctoral and Master's candidates wear hoods which are 3 ½ feet, and 4 feet long, respectively. The velvet trimming in the same order is 3 and 5 inches wide. The color of the trim identifies the faculty. A partial list of faculty colors follows: Arts, Letters, Humanities – White; Music – Pink; Business – Drab; Philosophy – Dark Blue; Engineering – Orange; Science – Golden Yellow; Fine Arts – Brown; Theology – Scarlet; Law – Purple. The lining of the hood – the portion most visible from the rear – indicates the institution awarding the degree. SMU's hood lining is blue with a red chevron.

The Bachelor gown in dark blue has the traditional characteristics of a Bachelor robe including full front pleats, and balanced fluting. Its distinguishing characteristic is the long pointed sleeves. A red silk stole embroidered in blue with the SMU seal is worn across the shoulders. Bachelor gowns are worn with a tassel and mortarboard.

SMU's regalia visually honor the University's traditions and spirit which we celebrate this morning.

THE HOWARD LANTERN

The Howard Lantern is dedicated to Professor Lorn Lambier Howard, Chief Marshal Emeritus of SMU from 1978-1987, in honor of his role in shaping the traditions and protocol of SMU's modern-day academic ceremonies. Designed in 2008 and crafted out of steel, aluminum and water glass, the lantern symbolizes the Rotunda of Dallas Hall, the University's oldest building and centerpiece of our campus. Engraved around the base is the University's motto, "veritas liberabit vos," which means "the truth will make you free." Around the top band are the words to Varsity, SMU's alma mater. Each year during the May Baccalaureate Service, this lantern is handed down by the Senior Class President to a representative of the Junior Class, a symbolic passing of the light that sustains our University. The Howard Lantern serves as a reminder of the important traditions which make up our corporate University life and of the light of learning and intellectual curiosity which shines within the students, faculty and staff here at SMU.

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES *

DALAI LAMA, Doctor of Humane Letters**

His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama, Tenzin Gyatso, is the head of state and spiritual leader of Tibet. Recognized at age 2 as the reincarnation of the 13th Dalai Lama, he assumed full political authority in 1950 at age 15 following China's invasion of Tibet. During suppression of the Tibetan national uprising by Chinese troops, he was forced into exile in 1959. Since then he has lived in Dharamsala, northern India, the seat of the Tibetan political administration in exile, becoming respected and renowned around the world. In 1989 the Dalai Lama received the Nobel Peace Prize for his non-violent struggle for the liberation of Tibet. He has met with world leaders in 60 countries and authored more than 70 books. In March 2011 he announced intentions to transfer his political authority to an elected leader, completing the democratic process he initiated among his people decades before. He remains the beloved leader of his people. For his lifelong leadership in promoting peace, compassion and unity among religions; for his focus on the commonality of faiths, the promotion of universal responsibility for other people's suffering, and for his passionate attention to global environmental and social problems, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon His Holiness the Dalai Lama the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

** His Holiness received his degree after delivering a special lecture on campus at SMU's 10th Hart Global Leaders Forum at McFarlin Auditorium on May 9. He spoke to approximately 2,500 guests, primarily local high school students and SMU students and faculty, as part of the prestigious speaker series made possible by Mitch and Linda W. Hart.

PIUS NKONZO LANGA, Doctor of Laws

Pius Nkondo Langa, former chief justice of the Constitutional Court of South Africa, has devoted his life to the support of human rights and democracy. Despite apartheid barriers, Langa earned B. Juris and LL.B. degrees from the University of South Africa. Rising from office messenger to magistrate in the Department of Justice, he became a Supreme Court advocate in 1977 and senior counsel in 1994, representing oppressed individuals and groups through the years. He was a founding member of the Release Mandela Committee and helped found the South African Legal Defense Fund. President Nelson Mandela appointed Langa as one of the first judges of the post-apartheid Court. In 1997 he became deputy president of the Court and in 2005 became the country's first black chief justice, retiring from that position 2009. He has taught at several universities, including SMU's Dedman School of Law. For his extraordinary personal accomplishments and 40 years of leadership as a champion of human and constitutional rights, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Justice Pius Nkondo Langa the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa.

* Citations of honorary degrees awarded by SMU may be found at smu.edu/ceremonies.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

*Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

VARSIITY

*Oh we see the Varsity,
Varsity, Varsity,
As she towers o'er the hill
Over there.
And our hearts are filled with joy,
SMU, SMU,
Alma Mater, we'll be true
Forever!*
