Ninety-Seventh Annual

COMMENCEMENT CONVOCATION

Second Century Celebration

*Saturday Morning
The Twelfth of May
Two Thousand and Twelve at Half Past Nine*

MOODY COLISEUM

*We celebrate the graduation of thousands of SMU students
as we mark the centennial years of SMU's founding from 1911-1915.*

*On this unique occasion,
we salute our graduates
who stand ready to take the next steps into the future.
And we honor the students,
faculty, parents and friends who shaped SMU's first 100 years and laid the foundation for an extraordinary second century.*

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES*

---

NANCY CARTWRIGHT, Doctor of Humane Letters

Nancy Cartwright is considered one of the most important and influential contemporary philosophers of science. She earned her Bachelor's degree in mathematics from the University of Pittsburgh and a Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of Illinois. After serving on the Stanford University faculty, she was appointed to her present position of professor in the Department of Philosophy, Logic and Scientific Method at the London School of Economics. Dr. Cartwright has produced path-breaking work on issues such as the nature of physical laws, causation and scientific reasoning. She is a pioneer of today's practice-based philosophy of science and helped develop the philosophy of social policy, economics, sociology, medicine, epidemiology and political science. Dr. Cartwright is the author of seven books. She has served as president of the American Philosophical Association (Pacific Division), president of the Philosophy of Science Association and a Fellow of the British Academy. She has been elected to the American Philosophical Society, American Academy of Arts and Sciences and German Academy of Science. For her groundbreaking contributions to the understanding of philosophy and science, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Nancy Cartwright the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

CONDOLEEZZA RICE, Doctor of Laws

Condoleezza Rice has led distinguished careers in both public service and higher education. She first entered public service on the National Security Council staff under President George H.W. Bush. She returned to public service in the administration of President George W. Bush, serving from 2001 to 2005 as the president's national security adviser and from 2005 to 2009 as the nation's 66th Secretary of State. She was the second woman and the first African American woman to hold the post. Dr. Rice earned her Bachelor's degree from the University of Denver, a Master's from the University of Notre Dame and a Ph.D. from the Graduate School of International Studies at the University of Denver. After joining the Stanford University faculty in 1981, she rose through the ranks to serve as Stanford provost from 1993 to 1999, the first woman and first African American to hold that position. Dr. Rice currently holds three positions at Stanford: professor of political economy in the Graduate School of Business, Thomas and Barbara Stephenson Senior Fellow on Public Policy at the Hoover Institution and professor of political science. She also serves as chair of the Board of Advisers of the Bush Institute, part of the George W. Bush Presidential Center on the SMU campus. She has authored and co-authored several books. For her distinguished accomplishments in public service and higher education, Southern Methodist University is honored to confer upon Condoleezza Rice the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa.

BACCALAUREATE PREACHER

DR. RICHARD J. WOOD, is dean emeritus of the Yale University Divinity School and former president of Earlham College. He is an ordained minister in The United Methodist Church and a Quaker minister. He earned the M.Div. degree at Union Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. in philosophy at Yale University. A specialist in Japanese philosophical and religious thought, especially ethics, Dr. Wood twice served as a visiting professor at Waseda University in Tokyo. For many years, he was responsible for administration of the Japan Study Program of the Great Lakes Colleges Association and Associated Colleges of the Midwest. He taught philosophy at Earlham College for 14 years and served as president of Earlham from 1985 to 1996. Dr. Wood was dean of the Yale Divinity School from 1996 until 2001, when he became president of the United Board for Christian Higher Education in Asia. He was president of the Japan Society in New York from 2006 to 2009. He also served for 10 years as lead instructor for the Association of Governing Boards' Institute for Trustee Leadership. Dr. Wood was elected to SMU's Board of Trustees in 2000 and retires from the SMU Board this year after his 12 years of service.

IMPERIAL BRASS

World-renowned Imperial Brass is Texas' premier large brass ensemble. This Dallas-based group consists of five core members and 13 auxiliary members, which combine to create their large brass ensemble. They perform in various combinations throughout the DFW area during their busy concert season. The repertoire of the Imperial Brass is quite extensive and varies in style.

Members of Imperial Brass have played with the Dallas Symphony, Fort Worth Symphony, Dallas Opera, Richardson Symphony, Dallas Wind Symphony, Arlington Ballet, Plano Symphony, East Texas Symphony and Enviso. In addition, members have a vast amount of recording experience and have performed with many popular artists.

Imperial Brass was featured recently on PBS' series, "Barney and Friends" in an episode entitled "Come Blow Your Horn." It introduced the children to the beautiful sounds of brass music and taught them that dedication to any skill will produce wonderful results. Imperial Brass also performed at the opening ceremonies of The Shops at Willow Bend in Plano, Texas, and has been featured at other venues, such as the Eisemann Center and the Galleria.

As active educators in the Dallas area, Imperial Brass is dedicated to encouraging and inspiring future generations of musicians. In addition to teaching in its private music studios, Imperial Brass performs regularly at area schools with two different shows entitled "Brass Around the World" and "Brass of Ages." Imperial Brass also has two recordings: a holiday CD entitled "Christmastime is Here," and its recently released compilation of audience favorites, "Classical, Jazz & Beyond."

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY'S HISTORY

In 1911, a Methodist education commission made a commitment to establish a major Methodist university in Texas. More than 600 acres of open prairie and $300,000 pledged by a group of Dallas citizens secured the university for Dallas, and it was chartered as Southern Methodist University. In appreciation of the city's support, the first building to be constructed on the campus was named Dallas Hall. It remains the centerpiece and symbol of SMU. When the University opened in 1915, it consisted of two buildings, 706 students, a 35-member faculty, and total assets of $636,540. The original schools of SMU were the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Theology and the School of Music.

SMU is owned by the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church. The first charge of its founders, however, was that it become a great university, not necessarily a great Methodist university. From its founding, SMU has been nonsectarian in its teaching and committed to the values of academic freedom and open inquiry.

Today, Southern Methodist University offers a comprehensive curriculum through Dedman College – the college of humanities and sciences – and six schools: Meadows School of the Arts, Edwin L. Cox School of Business, Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering, Perkins School of Theology, Dedman School of Law and Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development.

The University offers over 110 undergraduate majors, Master's degrees in over 120 areas, Ph.D. degrees in 28 fields and over 70 certificate programs. Enrollment for the Spring 2012 term was 10,537, including 5,928 undergraduate students and 4,609 graduate students. SMU students come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and 89 countries. About 80 percent of first-year students received some form of financial assistance for Spring 2012. About 25 percent of the student body are minorities; 73 percent of undergraduates and 55 percent of graduate students report religious affiliation: 16 percent are Roman Catholic and 11 percent are Methodist. Also represented in the student body are other Protestant denominations and other religions, including Judaism, Buddhism, Islam and Hindu.

In addition to preparing students for graduate and professional schools, or more directly for their life's work, the University strives to enhance their social, moral, intellectual and religious development so that they may lead worthy lives as individuals and citizens of the nation and of the world.

THE HISTORY OF ACADEMIC PROCESSION AND REGALIA

The academic procession and the regalia worn by the faculty and officers of the University symbolically represent the continuing link between the modern American university and the founding of the great medieval universities in Europe – chief among them Bologna, Paris and Oxford. As those institutions were derived from the Catholic Church, the universities adopted many of the ceremonial trappings of the church in their official public functions.

The mace of the University, a symbol of the authority vested in the president by the Board of Trustees and representing the covenant between the president and the faculty, is borne by the president of the Faculty Senate. Though the order of the procession varies from university to university, at SMU it proceeds from the Chief Marshal through the ranks of the faculty and the officers of the University to the president, who is preceded by the mace-bearer. The caps and gowns worn in the procession also vary from place to place. There are variations in design to indicate the degrees held by the wearers, and many universities in America have introduced colorful gowns and other distinguishing details (in place of the customary clerical black from which all originated). The caps, too, vary according to the customs of the university from which the wearer received a degree. While most American universities adopted the “mortarboard” style of Oxford, others have chosen styles based on other European institutions. The color of the tassel worn with the cap may be black for any degree, or the color may be that of the faculty of the major field of learning (e.g., Arts, Engineering, Law, etc.). Persons holding doctoral degrees and governing officials of institutions are entitled to wear tassels of gold metallic thread.

Within the great varieties of styles and colors in gowns and caps, there has been one universally accepted code for the hood worn trailing down the wearer’s back. Originally, it was like the hood on the habit worn by monks and very useful for protection against the weather and even for begging for alms. Nowadays, the hood through length and color shows the degree and the specialization of the wearer and the university that granted the degree.

Through these colorful ceremonies, SMU symbolically displays the continuity of its educational purposes with the origins of organized learning in the Western world.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY’S REGALIA

Candidates for degrees at SMU are robed in regalia, specially designed to incorporate SMU’s colors and symbols. The Board of Trustees regalia is being inaugurated today.

The dark red Trustees gown includes one large velvet chevron on each of the bell sleeves. The gown is marked by velvet panels down the front, around the base and around the neck. The front panels are embroidered in gold thread with the SMU seal, and gold braid outlines the chevrons and panels. A Trustees hood with a squared bottom is attached to the gown. An eight-sided, crimson red velvet tam with a gold silk tassel completes the regalia.

The Doctoral gown in dark blue includes three velvet chevrons on each of the bell sleeves. The gown is marked by velvet panels down the front and around the neck. The front panels are embroidered in gold thread with the SMU seal, and gold braid outlines the chevrons and panels. It is cut much fuller than the other gowns and may be ornamented in color. An eight-sided, crimson red velvet tam with a gold silk tassel completes the regalia.

The Master’s gown, also in dark blue, has a front yolk outlined in red braid and the SMU seal is embroidered in red on the left side. Like traditional Master’s robes, gowns are arranged so that the arm emerges from a long sleeve through a slit at the wrist. A mortarboard with a colored tassel representing the discipline in which the degree is earned is worn.

Doctoral and Master's candidates wear hoods which are three and one-half feet, and four feet long, respectively. The velvet trimming in the same order is three and five inches wide. The color of the trim identifies the faculty. A partial list of faculty colors follows: Arts, Letters, Humanities – White; Music – Pink; Business – Drab; Philosophy – Dark Blue; Engineering – Orange; Science – Golden Yellow; Fine Arts – Brown; Theology – Scarlet; Law – Purple. The lining of the hood – the portion most visible from the rear – indicates the institution awarding the degree. SMU's hood lining is blue with a red chevron.

The Bachelor gown in dark blue has the traditional characteristics of a Bachelor robe including full front pleats, and balanced fluting. Its distinguishing characteristic is the long pointed sleeves. A red silk stole embroidered in blue with the SMU seal is worn across the shoulders. Bachelor gowns are worn with a tassel and mortarboard. SMU's regalia visually honor the University's traditions and spirit which we celebrate this morning.

PRESIDENTIAL COLLAR AND MEDALLION

Chains of office, also known as collars, were used as badges of office in the Middle Ages. Today, they are custom designed metal necklaces worn by the president during academic ceremonies as part of his or her regalia.

The chain of office designed for the 10th President of Southern Methodist University, Dr. R. Gerald Turner, is made of bronze, a strong and durable metal. The medallion of the necklace is dominated by the University seal design just as the seal is the centerpiece in the floor of the Rotunda in Dallas Hall, SMU's historic first building.

The seal is an appropriate choice for the design of the medallion because it represents the president's responsibility to the sound education of each and every student at SMU. Each first-year and transfer student passes through Dallas Hall and views the University seal on their processional entry into the university at Opening Convocation. Upon graduation, students reverse the process during the Rotunda Recessional ceremony at the conclusion of the Baccalaureate Service during May Commencement weekend.

The bail, joining the medallion and the chain, represents the institution's bond between the faculty and the student body. Equally, the 32-inch chain, a work of art where two ends are clasped together, represents the joining of the desire to teach and the eagerness to learn demonstrated by SMU's faculty and students.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

Staffs that call groups to order are as old as civilization itself. Today's ceremonial maces descend particularly from medieval armor-piercing clubs topped by bludgeoning balls. These fierce weapons swiftly acquired symbolic meaning. By the fourteenth century, a mace, carried at the front of formal processions, required bystanders to note the authority and integrity of the event. In the sixteenth century, this formidable weapon lost its battle utility but took a symbolic turn: the spiked head evolved into a decorative orb. The European tradition by which universities presented maces on solemn occasions to signify their independence and protective power was adopted by their successors worldwide. The mace-bearer, a distinguished member of the institution at SMU, the president of the Faculty Senate leads formal ceremonies carrying this visible reminder of the university's history and status.

The 22-pound mace currently in use at SMU is linked to the inauguration of President Willis Tate (1954-1972) and is now known as the Tate Mace. The 57-inch staff is topped by a 10½ inch orb that represents not only the university's worldly authority but also echoes its distinctive neoclassical style. The orb is impressed with the seal of the university and encircled with SMU's motto, Veritas Liberabit Vos (The Truth Shall Make You Free). Surmounting the orb is a cross vividly painted in SMU red, a reminder of SMU's religious heritage.

The designer and manufacturer of the Tate Mace are unknown. The mace had become heavily worn from 50 years of use and handling, and in 2008 it was totally refurbished under the direction of Project Manager Fred Baney by SMU's Office of Planning, Design and Construction.

THE HOWARD LANTERN

The Howard Lantern is dedicated to Professor Lorn Lambier Howard, Chief Marshal Emeritus of SMU from 1978-1987, in honor of his role in shaping the traditions and protocol of SMU's modern-day academic ceremonies. Designed in 2008 and crafted out of steel, aluminum and water glass, the lantern symbolizes the Rotunda of Dallas Hall, the University's oldest building and centerpiece of our campus. Engraved around the base is the University's motto, Veritas Liberabit Vos, which means "The Truth Shall Make You Free." Around the top band are the words to Varsity, SMU's alma mater. Each year during the May Baccalaureate Service this lantern is handed down by the Senior Class President to a representative of the Junior Class, a symbolic passing of the light that sustains our University. The Howard Lantern serves as a reminder of the important traditions which make up our corporate University life and of the light of learning and intellectual curiosity which shines within the students, faculty and staff here at SMU.

MORTAR BOARD

The SMU chapter of Mortar Board thanks you for purchasing flowers today to support its activities. Mortar Board is a national honor society of senior students recognized for the accomplishments of both academic excellence and service to the community. Proceeds from the flower sale will help enable students to conduct numerous service-oriented activities during the year. In addition to student and faculty recognition events, members plan to sponsor a book drive in keeping with the national theme "Reading is Leading."

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

VARSIITY

Oh we see the Varsity,
Varsity, Varsity,
As she towers o'er the hill
Over there.
And our hearts are filled with joy,
SMU, SMU,
Alma Mater, we'll be true
Forever!
