STUDENT SUPPORT

Since the University's earliest days, student support – scholarships, internships, awards and graduate fellowships – has enabled SMU to attract and retain top students from Texas and around the United States. Providing a midsized, private research University experience has never been inexpensive, and helping deserving students mitigate the cost continues to be critical.

Without the generosity of benefactors who understand the impact of an SMU education, many SMU students might not be able to afford the life-changing SMU experience. And many SMU alumni might not have made the same positive impact on their professions and communities.

Student support has contributed to the quality of SMU's student body throughout University history. Donor investments enable SMU to attract and retain students who contribute vitality to the SMU educational experience and distinguish themselves through their achievements and leadership. These students establish and lead campus organizations, star in athletics competitions, study abroad and excel in and beyond the classroom. Scholarships and other forms of support also contribute to the ethnic, geographic and cultural diversity of the SMU student body.

Over the years, student support also has attracted talented young people to Dallas permanently. Many SMU graduates who grew up elsewhere ultimately decided to stay in the city after their collegiate years. They have built careers, raised families and become leaders who contribute to the growth and development of the region where they received their extraordinary education.

Support for both academic and need-based scholarships at SMU began to rise significantly beginning in 1997 at the start of the A Time to Lead Campaign. The Second Century Campaign has been extraordinarily successful in creating more than 580 new endowed scholarships. Together, the two campaigns created more than 750 endowed undergraduate scholarships.

The campaigns also received endowments and annual support for fellowships, annual support for scholarships and other forms of student support. The range of academic scholarships has broadened greatly to include general University scholarships, scholarships offered by SMU's schools and other scholarships that are focused on specific studies or interests.

One hundred years after its first students arrived on the Hilltop, SMU is celebrating the Year of the Student in 2015. As the University highlights the contributions of students to SMU, it recognizes the crucial role that increased student support has played in extending SMU's tradition of attracting outstanding graduate and undergraduate students.

In an important measure of student quality, University admission is far more competitive than ever before. Between 2004 and 2014, undergraduate applications nearly doubled. In 2015, the number of applications set a record, at nearly 13,000.

SMU's newest undergraduate students, the Class of 2019, have set new heights for academic distinction in high school. They earned an unweighted A-minus grade average – essentially, all had taken a very demanding course load with multiple Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate classes. Their average SAT score was 1308 on the 1600-point scale, more than 100 points higher than a decade ago. The average ACT score was 29.3.

Looking to the future, there is every reason to believe that support for graduate and undergraduate students will continue to be of paramount importance to the University. While SMU and other colleges and universities will seek to contain the costs of providing a secondary education, paying for that education will almost certainly remain a challenge for students and their families. As SMU competes with highly ranked colleges and universities for the best students, even greater student support is crucial.

SMU is deeply grateful to the donors of student support for all they have done to enable top undergraduate and graduate students to attend the University, to the benefit of those young scholars, SMU and the community. The University also is thankful for the student support donors of the future, who will enable SMU to attract even more accomplished students and make it possible for SMU to take even greater strides as one of the nation's premier private universities.

CARL SEWELL '66

Today's speaker is a national leader in the automotive industry. Carl Sewell is the chairman of Sewell Automotive Companies and an innovator in establishing customer service standards. His book Customers for Life has sold more than one million copies in 17 languages.

He has been a member of the SMU Board of Trustees since 1996 and served as chair from 2006 to 2010. He is a co-chair of The Second Century Campaign Leadership Council and has served on numerous boards and committees. He was awarded SMU's Distinguished Alumni Award in 1993.

Mr. Sewell has been a strong advocate of the strategic initiative to recruit high-achieving students and improve academic standards at SMU. He promoted the successful drive to increase the average SAT score of entering first-year students to 1300, and strongly advocated the creation of new academic scholarships as the chief means for accomplishing that goal.

“DURING MY TIME AT SMU, I HAVE BEEN ABLE TO TRAVEL THE WORLD, WORK WITH PROFESSORS WHO ARE EXPERTS IN THEIR FIELDS AND MEET FRIENDS I WILL TREASURE FOR THE REST OF MY LIFE.
THE SUPPORT I HAVE RECEIVED HAS MEANT THE WORLD TO ME.”

“I WAS GRATEFUL TO GET A SCHOLARSHIP
TO SMU AND CONSIDERED THAT MY BIG BREAK. I DIDN’T HAVE MY SIGHTS SET ON ANYTHING MORE THAN GOING TO OUR
STATE UNIVERSITY. I WOULD RANK MY ACADEMIC PREPARATION AT SMU WITH ANY EDUCATION I COULD HAVE RECEIVED
ANYWHERE ELSE.”
