

2007 SUCCESS FACTS:

Graduates:

Eswar R. Yarrapareddy defended his Ph.D. Thesis in May of 2007.

Funding:

RCAM and CLAM were awarded with the grants in the value of over $1.2 million

- “Graduate Assistance in Areas of National Need: Lasers and Plasmas for Advanced Manufacturing”, US Department of Education, PR/Award # P200A060216-07, $170,508, August 2007 – July 2008.
- “Industry/University Cooperative Research Center for Lasers and Plasmas for Advanced Manufacturing”, Army Research Laboratory, $30,047, membership for 2006-2007.
- “Industry/University Cooperative Research Center for Lasers and Plasmas for Advanced Manufacturing”, NSF, $50,000, August 2007 – July 2008.
- “Co-op summer salary expense for a graduate student”, ARMORsmith Co., Dallas, TX, June – August 2007, $9,900.
- “Advanced Precision Supply Parts Manufacturing”, U.S. Army Research Office, Research Triangle Park, NC, $1,013,520.00, July 2007 – June 2010.

Donations:

In January of 2007, Hass Automation, Inc., Oxnard, CA donated to RCAM a Vertical Machining Center VF-4 with accessories in the value of $138,608.