TERM INFORMATION

SMU-IN-TAOS holds three summer semester programs: May Term, June (Summer 1) and August Term. Each term offers an opportunity for students to study and live in an engaging natural environment unlike that found on the main campus. While the program strives to make general education courses available each semester, the program also offers opportunities for directed study. Please refer to the most recent course listing for specific information.

May term is the most competitive semester; it is in your best interest to list several courses on your application, as course enrollment is limited. June (Summer 1) and August Term admissions operate on a rolling basis, but course preferences and scholarships are awarded to early applicants and classes can fill quickly.

Please discuss the Taos program with your academic adviser to assure that courses meet academic requirements.

FRIENDS OF TAOS ASSISTANCE SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited number of tuition assistance scholarships are available to full-time SMU undergraduates who plan to study at SMU-IN-TAOS during May Term, (June) Summer 1 and/or August Term. Preference is given to students taking courses in June (Summer 1) term. Awards apply only to Taos tuition costs. Room, board, course fees, and transportation are the responsibility of the students. The deadline for applying for a Friends of Taos Tuition Scholarship is the same deadline for course applications set for each summer term. Award notifications will be emailed two weeks after the deadline. Upon acceptance of the tuition award, the awarded monetary amount will be credited to individual student accounts.
