

LUCY BILLINGSLEY

PARTNER, BILLINGSLEY COMPANY

Lucy Billingsley has spent her career in real estate, developing and managing commercial developments. Lucy and Henry Billingsley started Billingsley Company as joint partners in 1978 to manage their growing real estate portfolio in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. The company specializes in developing office buildings, design centers, multi-family, retail and industrial properties, and master-planned communities, which include: International Business Park, Austin Ranch, Cypress Waters and the Arts Plaza campus in Dallas' Arts District.

Prior to her focus on Billingsley Company, Lucy was Chief Executive Officer of the Dallas Market Center and the Crow Design Centers in Dallas, Houston and Boston. She grew Wyndham Jade to become the largest privately owned travel agency in the Southwest.

Lucy's primary activities include: Women for Women International Board Chair, National Geographic Society Council of Advisors, Chiapas International Founder, Council of Foreign Relations, The Tate Board at SMU and the UT Dallas Center for Brain Health Advisory Committee.

Lucy Billingsley was born and raised in Dallas and is a graduate of The University of Texas with a B.B.A. in finance. She presently lives in Dallas with her husband, Henry, and has four adult children.
